

THE AMERICAN REVIEW OF POLITICS

Volume 14

Winter, 1993

CONTENTS

Introduction	461
Research Directions
Leon D. Epstein	467
Understanding Political Parties: Back to Basics
Joseph A. Schlesinger	481
Deduced and Abandoned: Rational Expectations, the Investment Theory of Political Parties, and the Myth of the Median Voter
Thomas Ferguson	497
Local Political Parties in an Age of Change
John P. Frendreis and Alan R. Gitelson	533
Political Parties and Political Mobilization
M. Margaret Conway	549
The Impact of the Voting Rights Act on American Political Parties
Howard A. Scarrow	565
Renewing Party Scholarship: Lessons From Abroad
Kay Lawson	577
The Evolution of Party Organizations in Europe: The Three Faces of Party Organization
Richard S. Katz and Peter Mair	593
Political Parties and Party Systems in Regime Transformation: Inner Transition in the New Democracies of Central Europe
David M. Olson	619
Notes on the Study of Political Parties in the Third World
William Crotty	659
Parties, Programs and Policies: A Comparative and Theoretical Perspective
Ian Budge	695