Disability Justice, Race & Education: Artwork

Diana Lopez
Independent Scholar and Artist

Diana Lopez is a self-taught Deaf artist from Los Angeles, CA. She has been a freelance artist over the past five years. Her work is involved the complexity of human emotions that they are difficult to put in words. Diana is able to express those deeply feelings through colorful brushstrokes and textured paintings, where it can be felt, touched and seen through sensory experiences. Her deafness is a huge part of her identity. You can find her work on Instagram @duppet_puppet and on Facebook @DuppetPuppet.
