

March came in like a lamb. A soft, warm day appeared in the midst of a bitter winter, promising the approach of that most reassuring of seasons, Spring, which is never ignored on a college campus. The South Oval was a site for welcoming the balmy break. Students took to the out-of-doors in pairs (left above), in classes (right above), and singly (above).

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number
LH 1 .O6S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library.