

Alumni Hall of Fame

The second annual Alumni Hall of Fame Awards will be given in the fall, and nominations are now being sought. The Award was established to honor graduates and former students of the University who have demonstrated exceptional dedication and loyalty to the OU Association and its related activities. Only two persons may be inducted in each year. In making nominations the following factors should be considered:

- Exceptional and outstanding participation in activities and projects of the University of Oklahoma Association.
- Leadership extended to the University of Oklahoma Association on local, state or national levels.
- Enhancement of the image of the University and the Alumni Association through good citizenship and distinguished service to community, state or nation.
- Consistency of participation and performance over a period of years to the Alumni Association.
- Loyalty and dedication to the University of Oklahoma Association.
