

HONORED ALUMNI CLUB NOTES

1905-10

Charles A. Long, '05, Fullerton, California: He has lived in Fullerton with his niece and her husband since last year shortly after the death of his wife. He is an active supporter of a number of educational and religious institutions and is writing his memoirs.

Loula Elder, '06, Dallas: "In spite of the years, a broken hip in 1956 which left me with a limp, two cataract operations, I am fine, have many interests, keep busy and have a pleasant life."

Ralph H. Dangerfield, '08, Enid: Retired in 1954 as St. Louis division manager for Phillips Petroleum Co. He has four grandchildren.

Ed Harris, '08, Norman: He has been retired since 1958 but is active in alumni affairs. He says his greatest pride is his World War I career and his activity in Alumni Development Fund and life membership work. He has six children and four grandchildren who are members of the alumni association, and he is planning on enrolling the remaining grandchild and three great grandchildren.

Gola B. Montgomery Clarke, '10, Frederick: Widowed twice, she is a member of the First United Methodist Church where she is an honorary member of the administrative board, a life member of the Women's Society for Christian Service and has been a substitute teacher of the Wesley Bible Class. She has been active in the Women's Federated Missionary Society, Eastern Star and the Frederick Garden Clubs.

R. W. Hutto, '10, Norman: One of three organizers of the alumni association life membership program and one of the original members. He is vice chairman of the board of directors of Security National Bank.

Jesse T. Owens, '10ba, Kailua, Hawaii: He and his wife are traveling extensively.

Lois Killion Scott, '10, Tulsa: "Not much news with me as we have neither grandchildren nor ailments."

Gladys Scroggs Hawthorne, '10, Chicago: Received a master's degree in psychology from Denver University in 1940 and is listed in "Who's Who in Library Service." At nearly 82 she is still working and plans to continue work another year. A widow, she has one child.

1911

Frank A. Balyeat, '11, Wichita Falls: He is retired and living with his son.

Earl S. Coots, '11, Orlando, Florida: He has lived in Orlando since 1945. He retired in 1955 and has four grandsons, one granddaughter and seven great grandchildren.

Cora Haskett, '11, Dallas: Has recently moved from Norman to Dallas.

Harry Jolly, '11, Carnegie: Reports he is bedfast and has no family.

Myrl Edie Lajeunesse, '11, Livingston, Montana: She is widowed and has one son and two grandchildren. She is 81.

Olive Leeper, '11, Los Angeles, California: Retired in 1946 from teaching in the Los Angeles public schools. She now lives in Bethany Retirement House in Los Angeles.

1912

James O. Colburn, '12, San Clemente, California: Taught, attended law school for a time, worked in banking, edited a Tulsa farm magazine. Married Martha Ethel Dunn in 1933 and for the past 15 years they have lived in San Clemente where they own and operate Alta Vista Apartments on the Pacific Ocean.

Thurman S. Hurst, '12, Pawnee: Practices law in Pawnee where he grew up and is now the senior active member of Rotary. His son Edwin, '42Law, is an attorney with Gulf Oil in Houston; son Robert, also an alumnus, is with AT&T in Oklahoma City, and his daughter, Helen Thompson, an alumna, lives on a ranch near Tulsa. He was a Supreme Court justice from 1937 to 1949.

Col. (ret.) Reuben G. Lewis, '12, Dallas: He is retired from his post as chief pharmacist of the Children's Medical Center of Dallas.

Earl D. McBride, '12, Oklahoma City: Retired in 1970 from active medical practice and retired from the staff at the Bone and Joint Hospital and McBride Clinic which he founded in 1926. He and his wife, Pauline Wahl, have three daughters, Pollyanna Ishmael, wife of the chief of internal medicine at the Orthopedic and Arthritis Center and Bone and Joint Hospital in Oklahoma City; Mary Frances Tullius, wife of an electronic engineer in Dallas; Dorothy Lou Molloy, wife of a professional watchmaker in Oklahoma City.

V. E. Monnett, '12, Norman: He is retired and lives alone, doing all his own house and yard work.

Jerry B. Newby, '12, Oklahoma City: Last October he served as general chairman of the annual convention of the American Institute of Professional Geologists in Oklahoma City. While president of the Oklahoma section of that group in 1967 he proposed explaining the geology of some of the more interesting Oklahoma areas through billboard type displays. The first of these was installed recently near the capitol explaining the Oklahoma City oil field.

1913-14

May C. Buckingham, '13, Youngtown, Arizona: Lives in a retirement community where she is active in Delta Delta Delta alumnae work. Her son, John C., is an obstetrician and gynecologist at University Hospital, Wilmette, Illinois. She has four grandchildren.

Frank G. Howe, '13, Glendale, California: Semi-retired from the practice of law. He and his wife, Mary E. Howe, have three children, six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Doris Mundy McWhirt, '13, Washington, D.C.: Widowed in 1946, she has three children, Dr. Joseph R., a plastic surgeon in Dayton, Ohio; Doris Papazian who lives in New York, and Richard, an electronic scientist for the Naval Research Laboratory, Washington, D.C. She has seven grandchildren.

Roy Eaton, '14, Harlingen, Texas: He and his wife are retired "and enjoying life with other senior citizens who spend the winters in Harlingen and the summers on the lakes in Minnesota." They have one son, Charles H., '36, and five grandchildren.

Virginia Tolbert Fowler, '14, Fayetteville, Arkansas: Recently took a garden tour of Spain. Her husband, William, onetime director of OU's student health service, died in January at 86. He had practiced medicine until he was 82. There are 12 grandchildren.

Fred Hansen, '14, Boulder, Colorado: Retired in 1964 and moved to Boulder after having served as Cotton County attorney for two terms, one term in the Oklahoma Legislature and 40 years in the office of the state attorney general. He lives near his son, Richard, '48, who is Boulder municipal judge, and Daniel, '47, an orthopedic surgeon. He has another son, David, '58, a buyer for Cargill Inc. in Tokyo, and a daughter, Rosamond, '50, who lives in New Orleans. He is 85 and his wife, Charmian Simpson, '14, is 77.

Bettie Stephens Lide, '14, Wake Forest, North Carolina: Since her husband's death last year, she has lived alone. As a team they were missionaries in China from 1920 to 1940, and he continued that work until 1964. She has six children, four girls and two boys. R. W. is a professor of physics at the University of Texas; Frank P. is professor of German at the University of Kansas but will go to the University of Nevada in the fall; Nina Stephens Fox is a social worker in Miami; Betty Lide Fletcher teaches mathematics at Temple University; Mary Lide Morris is a radiologist in Burlington, North Carolina; Anne Lide Ford lives in State College, Pennsylvania, where her husband is a professor of philosophy.

Paul R. Mills, '14, Houston: Nearly 80, he and his wife, Mary, have three daughters, seven granddaughters and one married grandson.

John Rogers, '14, Tulsa: Senior member of law firm of Rogers, Bell & Robinson since 1968. He was general counsel for several oil companies and in 1933 began devoting his entire time to Chapman-McFarlin-Barnard interests. He was dean of the Tulsa University Law School from 1948 to 1956, served as an OU regent and for 18 years as a state regent. He has been a leader in numerous civic and professional activities and in 1960 received OU's highest honor, the Distinguished Service Citation.

Luther H. White, '14, Fort Worth: "I am proud to be enumerated as an alumnus of the University of Oklahoma Class of 1914 (best class ever to graduate from this institution) with an AB degree along with a major in petroleum geology, the foundation of all good science." He is nearly eighty-one, a widower since 1969. He has four sons, Dr. Harold A. White, Tulsa; Kenneth T. White, Gulf Oil Corp. executive, Houston; Dr. Luther H. White, Jr. and Dr. Robert C. White, Fort Worth, eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

1915

Lenore M. Connolly, '15, Fort Worth: She spends most of her time traveling. Her son John J., '47, is director, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Cosmodyne Corp., Torrance, California; Arch, '44, is superintendent of Wichita Falls State Hospital; Robert, '39, is manager of an electronics factory in Mexico; Virginia (Mrs. Robert G. Howell), '41, lives in Joplin, Missouri; Martha (Mrs. Donald J. Vernon), '34, lives in Midland. She has 19 grandchildren.

Blanche Hayes Davis, '15, Oklahoma City: She is retired after working in the Oklahoma City schools as a teacher and librarian for many years. She has four sons and a daughter and is active in guild, church and home work.

Josephine Lawhead Hunkapillar, '15, Beaverton, Oregon: Retired from teaching. Has been active in The United Methodist Church Women's Society of Christian Service, has been on jurisdiction conference district and local boards and is state parliamentarian for Oregon Church Women United. She also is active in Delta Kappa Gamma. Her daughter, Harriet, is a teacher in Hearne, Texas and has three children; her son, Chester, lives at Athena, Oregon and has four children.

Wanda Malarkey McCollum, '15, Tulsa: She is active in the Boston Avenue Methodist Church, AAUW, League of Women Voters and other organizations. She has 25 grandchildren but says she doesn't baby sit.

Mildred McClellan Melville, '15, Denver, Colorado: She has retired as Denver area reporter for the Fairchild Publications, eight business newspapers published in New York. She continues freelancing. Her husband is a practicing attorney; her son, Max, is an appraiser for a Denver bank. They have three grandchildren.

Ella Vera Jones Northcutt, '15, Oklahoma City: She has completed 25 years of volunteer work at Veterans Hospital in Oklahoma City. She has two daughters, three granddaughters and a great granddaughter.

Charles B. Shapard, '15, Clayton, Missouri: He retired in 1959 after serving as an officer of Mercantile Trust Co., St. Louis, for 24 years. He and his wife have been married 50 years. Their son is a St. Louis commodity broker.

Donald E. Walker, '15, Tulsa: Since 1942 he has been with Noble Drilling Corp. where he is director of personnel and safety and trustee of the Noble Employees Trust. He is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and is active in alumni affairs of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Edward E. Weis, '15, La Habra, California: Retired in 1958 and moved to southern California. Has two children, a daughter in Pasadena and a son in Santa Rosa, three grandchildren.

1916

Charles Butbad, '16, Tulsa: After teaching in Tulsa for 10 years, he went into accounting where he worked for 39 years, retiring about five years ago. He now looks after his rental property and farm. He and his wife have two sons, two daughters, 36 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Myrtle Thompson Butler, '16, Angola, Indiana: "I still live alone on this beautiful lake in northern Indiana where I've lived since my marriage in 1924. My dog Patches and I have been alone for ten years. I'm 84 years old . . . I play for Eastern Star, give readings and have a few outstanding pupils. Have a book of printed verse."

Roy Cox, '16, Blackwell: He began law practice in Blackwell after graduation. He and his wife, Carrie, have three children, eight grandchildren and one great grandson. He is active in church work and Kiwanis and plays golf.

Walter O. Cralle, '16, Tulsa: He and his wife (the former Mrs. Carl Anderson) together have eight children, 19 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. His children are all OU alumni. Theodosia is Mrs. Wilson B. Prickett and lives in Norman; Stratton Brooks Cralle lives in San Angelo, Texas; Walter is a senior engineer with IBM in Georgetown, Kentucky; Marian is Mrs. Emmett Anderson and lives in Richardson, Texas; Marcia is Mrs. Mailen M. Cannon and lives in Tulsa.

William G. Cullen, '16, Dallas: He retired from the Internal Revenue Service in 1958 where for several years he had been head of the appellate division for a five-state area. He was widowed in 1964. His brother, Caleb Cullen, '16, lives in Walnut Creek, California, and another brother, John, lives in Ponca City. His sister, Nina, '16, died in 1964.

Oscar A. Kinchen, '16, Lubbock, Texas: Recently retired as professor emeritus of history after 30 years' tenure at Texas Tech. He is engaged in research and the publication of books and articles relating chiefly to the Civil War years. His wife, Lila Allred Kinchen, is associate professor of clothing and textiles at Texas Tech and is co-author of a college text, Clothing for Moderns.

Luther W. Kitchens, '16, Tulsa: He and his wife, Maud Myers Kitchens, '22, live near their daughter, Elizabeth Kitchens Banker, '47, and her three children. Their son, Wesley, '36, is an astronomer at the Naval Observatory in Washington, D.C.

Harry Nesb, '16, Brooklyn, New York: A doctor, he is semi-retired. He and his wife have a daughter who is a scientist with the government in Washington and a son who is an optometrist.

Dr. Lucille Johnson Williamson, '16, Ithaca, New York: She is retired as professor of home management at Cornell University.

1917

Gladys A. Barnes, '17, Dinuba, California: After 52 years of teaching with 41 years on the OU modern languages faculty, she retired in 1961 and since has lived in Dinuba to be near her only brother and his family. She does freelance writing under a pen name, landscape painting and collects gems and minerals.

Florence E. Brooks, '17, Chickasha: After teaching for seven years she was associated with her brother in a poultry business until 1965. She now makes a home for an aunt and looks after some rental property for her.

Hazlitt B. Caldwell, '17, Wichita Falls: Retired from military service as a lieutenant colonel and also is retired from the position of toll circuit engineer for Southwestern Bell in Oklahoma. He is active in the First Christian Church and Downtown Optimist Club of Wichita Falls. He and his wife have a son, H.B. Jr., in West Palm Beach, Florida, and a son Charles T., living in Orange, California.

John Helmick, '17, Inglewood, California: He has been practicing law in Los Angeles since 1922. He has two children living nearby. His wife is the former Jennie L. Armor, '24.

Montford T. Johnson, '17, Amarillo: He has for the most part retired from the Johnson Land and Cattle Co. Ltd., which is now operated by his son, M. T. Johnson, Jr. He has four grandchildren, Berkley Johnson Grenewald, a New York fashion model; Margaret Johnson Herring, a housewife with one child; Monty Johnson, who has signed a football contract with the Green Bay Packers, and Betty Johnson, a sophomore at OU.

Charles L. Roff, '17, Durant: He is retired and is trying his hand at writing. He and his wife have been married since 1917 and have one daughter and five grandchildren. He practiced law until 1934 and then moved to the farm where he now lives.

Carl Whiteman, '17, San Francisco: Retired. He and his wife have one daughter, three grandchildren and two great grandchildren living in California except one granddaughter and two great granddaughters who live in Brussels, Belgium.

1918

Ina Emenbiser Bateman, '18, Los Angeles: She has one daughter, Dorothy Bateman Nielsen, and three grandchildren, all living in Carmel. Her twin sister, Iva E. Walker, lives in Pasadena and is a retired high school teacher.

Owen Black, '18, Muskogee: Retired in 1958 as an attorney with the Veterans Administration and is a former Muskogee City Council member. His daughter, Jean Black Anthis, lives in Leavenworth, Kansas, and his son, Dr. Owen Black Jr., lives in Augusta, Georgia. Both are OU alumni.

Verda Wood Bolyard, '18, Littleton, Colorado: Belongs to a book club made up of Oklahoma people. Two sons, Steve, an insurance representative, and Dudley, a geologist, both living in Littleton. There are six grandchildren. Her sister, Okla, lives in Long Beach, California, and her twin, Homa, lives in Colorado Springs.

Anna Ellen Boyce, '18, Carmen: She is a retired school teacher, is active in church work at age 78 and is librarian of the 4,000 volume town library.

Nell Donnell Bower Cushman, '18, Oklahoma City: Her two daughters, Frances and Audrey Nell, both OU alumnae, married OU graduates William B. Clayton and W. H. Klein. After being a widow for some 20 years she married retired OU professor Dr. Paul A. Cushman. She is still an active real estate broker.

Angie Debo, '18, Marshall: Her latest book, "A History of the Indians of the United States," was published last October by the OU Press.

Allan Falkenstine, '18, Watonga: He is an associate district judge.

James V. Gray, '18, Oklahoma City: Retired as active pastor of a church in 1959 but continued to preach until 1965. He has two married children, five grandchildren and a great granddaughter.

S. G. Nelson, '18, San Antonio, Texas: Served in World War I and then worked ten years in the Mexico oil fields. Later moved to San Antonio where he is an oil producer and rancher and serves as chairman of the board of Scobey Moving and Storage Co. He has three children and seven grandchildren.

Wesley Nunn, '18, Tulsa: Sold his ranch in the Kiamichi Mountains and moved to Tulsa in 1967. Their son, Wes Jr., lives in California with his wife and six children. Nunn is active in the Tulsa Club, and he and his wife travel a great deal.

Charles Cobb Victory, '18, Tahlequah: Since 1949 has been vice chief and chairman of the executive committee of the Cherokee Nation. Moved to Tahlequah in 1956. Now working mostly in the health field trying to get a new Indian hospital and develop a health personnel training program with facilities at Northeastern State College. He is 81.

1919

James M. Armstrong, '19, Midland, Texas: He and his wife, Mary Lee Galbraith, have two children, six grandchildren and one great granddaughter. He is an independent oil operator, a partner in Yeager and Armstrong in Midland.

Paul D. Barton, '19, Tucson, Arizona: He and his wife are making their home in Arizona for health reasons. He recently became a great grandfather.

Jesse D. Biggers, '19, Rochelle, Illinois: Retired. His wife, Donelda Murray Biggers, died last year at the age of 70.

Quince B. Boydston, '19, Fort Gibson: He is in the private practice of law. In 1969 he retired as general counsel of the Grand River Dam Authority after more than 30 years of service. He and his wife, Floy, have one daughter, Betty Rupp, '43, who lives in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Their other daughter, Mary Lou Lindsay, '49, lives in Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Elaine Boylan, '19, San Francisco: Since 1959 has lived most of the time in San Francisco with several trips to Europe. She is active in the Book Club of California and enjoys attending opera, the theatre, hearing symphony concerts, reading, needlework, collecting cat books and playing bridge. She currently is cataloging the 150 oriental art objects she collected while working in Japan from 1947 to 1952 and plans to return to Japan this summer.

Web Glidewell, '19, Helena, Oklahoma: He is president of the Helena National Bank, a position he has held since 1944.

Clint T. Johnson, '19, Oklahoma City: A retired Air force colonel. "Spend my time taking care of my property and business interests and keep healthy playing golf." He and his wife (Ruth Smith Jonson, '17) attend all home football games. Son,

B. T., '41, is with Boeing in Media, Pennsylvania. Daughter, Betty Jean, '44, married and living in Houston.

Joe N. Koch, '19, Dallas: He has been a commission agent representing fabric mills. He and his wife, Ruth Glass, have been married since 1928 and have two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Tucker, wife of an ophthalmologist, living in Honolulu, and Mrs. Ed Ellis, whose husband works for Texas Instruments, Dallas.

Wade H. Loofbourrow, '19, Boise City: Practices law with his son, Robert H. Loofbourrow, also an alumnus, in the firm of Loofbourrow and Loofbourrow. He and his wife have three grandchildren.

Gladys Coats McDonald, '19, Oklahoma City: Has retired after 49 years of educational work. She is president of the Oklahoma District of Retired Teachers. Her sister, Pauline Coats Guiles, '21, is living in Florida.

Evangeline Roberts, '19, Lawton: Lived in Russellville, Arkansas, until recently moving to Lawton. She is retired from her position as professor of French at Arkansas Polytechnic College.

Lily Stafford, '19, Lawton: She was head of the science department at Lawton High School from 1920 to 1962 when she retired. She now does private tutoring in chemistry, geology and physics.

Orlando F. Sweet, '19, Guymon: Engaged in active practice of law as a partner in the firm of LaMar, Tryon, Sweet, Field & Petty. He has three daughters, nine grandchildren. A veteran of World War II, he served as attorney for commissioners of the land office of the State of Oklahoma from 1935 to 1942 and was county attorney of Texas County from 1923 to 1929.

Albert M. Williams, '19, Sonoma, California: Taught for 37 years in a junior college and for 15 years was a consultant in chemical engineering. His wife, Donna, also was a teacher. His daughter, Shirley, is a teacher in Huntington, Pennsylvania, and Carol is a nurse. He is a 50-year member of Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Xi and Alpha Chi Sigma.

Harper Baughman, '20, Ponca City: He has retired after many years as president of Baughman Lumber Co. He has been mayor of Ponca City and active in working toward construction of the Kaw Dam and in Chamber of Commerce affairs. He and his wife have one married son and two grandchildren in Bartlesville.

Bessie Boyce, '20, Carmen: She was a domestic science teacher for some years but ended her career in the 1930s. She is interested in church work and assists her sister in the town library.

Earl A. Brown, '20, Ardmore: He is an attorney and special judge of the 20th judicial district. He has previously served as Ardmore postmaster, Oklahoma state representative, state senator and Love County attorney.

Maude R. Calvert, '20, Oklahoma City: She was honored last year for more than 50 years of volunteer service to the handicapped. Her two daughters and their husbands are all OU alumni. Mrs. Calvert's husband died in 1959.

Alma Douthit Campbell, '20, Hendersonville, North Carolina: She and her husband, Paul, are retired. Their son, Paul Jr., is director of industrial relations for Miles Corp. in Elkhart. They also have a daughter in Louisville and a child in San Francisco.

Willard H. Campbell, '20, New City, New York: Retired March 1 after 18 years as vice president of retail research for Ralf Shockey and Associates, New York City, following 31 years in department stores.

Paul C. Dean, '20, Fort Worth: is active in the oil business with his brother, David P. Dean, '20. They have their own company, Great Expectations Oil Corp., located in the First National Bank of Fort Worth.

Dollie R. Hall, '20, Broken Arrow: A widow, she has completed 50 years as a geologist and is now semi-retired although she maintains an office in her home and promotes drilling when the opportunity arises. She also works in volunteer community service.

Bennie Henry, '20, Stillwater: She and her sister (Empo Henry, '19) are on the staff of the community project program of continuing education for adults sponsored by the First Methodist Church. They teach courses in clothing and literature in addition to doing administrative work.

Sam J. Huser, '20, Joplin, Missouri: Worked as a pharmaceutical representative in the Joplin area and then operated his own drug store there, retiring after 16 years. His wife (Laura Radnich Huser) taught music in Joplin for 20 years and is now retired. Their oldest daughter, Betty Jean Huser Serafy lives in Brownsville, Texas, has three children and is head of the music department at Southmost College. Their younger daughter, Ruthanne Huser Warren, teaches music in Canton, Ohio, and has five children.

W. Ross Johnston, '20, Oklahoma City: He is chairman of the board of Midland Mortgage Co. and owner and manager of W. R. Johnston and Co., Insurance. His wife, the former Kathryn Pratt attended OU 1917-18. He has two daughters.

W. A. Kitcbens, '20, Denton, Texas: He is with the defense electric power administration of the Department of the Interior covering 28 central and southeastern states. Widowed, he has one son with Phillips Petroleum in Bartlesville and two grandsons. He plans a second retirement this year and a return to Oklahoma City.

Glenn E. Laskey, '20, Ruston, Louisiana: He is a retired petroleum geologist. He and his wife, Virginia Davis Laskey, have been married 46 years, and they have one daughter, Mrs. H. C. Kilpatrick Jr.

Gertrude Phillips, '20, Norman: She is moving into a new home in Norman from the house on Main that has been her family home since 1908. Founder of OU's Chi Omega sorority chapter, she taught English and Spanish for 13 years, worked at a variety of positions in Washington, did public relations work for the Army in California during World War II, has done extensive anthropological studies and has been active in Indian affairs.

Grace E. Ray, '20, Norman: She retired from the OU School of Journalism faculty last year and continues to freelance articles to a variety of publications. She has finished a book manuscript. Her sister, Mary Ray Sexton, '20, lives in Bartlesville where she devotes her time to work in the Presbyterian Women's Society, AAUW and welfare projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Sayre, '20, Fort Worth: Sayre retired in 1968. Mrs. Sayre had open-heart surgery in Houston in January and is in better health than in recent years. They have four children, a married daughter in Valencia, California; a daughter in graduate school at Duke University on a Woodrow Wilson Scholarship; Robert M. Jr. who is completing work for a Ph.D. in biophysics from New York University; William H., a captain at Brooke General Hospital in San Antonio.

Clifford T. Woods, '20, San Pedro, California: Has been retired from the City of Los Angeles bureau of engineering for 10 years but is still active at 80. He and his wife, Helen, have a daughter and two grandsons in Osceola, Wisconsin.

W. Max Chambers, '21, Edmond: Was president of Central State College from 1949 to 1960 and is now retired. His first wife died in 1968 and he has remarried to Mrs. Myrna Wilshire. His daughter, Maxine, is married to an attorney and teaches at the University of Illinois.

R. M. Kobs, '23, Mountain View: He has been with the First National Bank almost 50 years and has been president for 27 years. He has two daughters, both of whom attended OU, and six grandchildren.

---

Editor's Note: The Honored Alumni Club Notes were taken from responses to information requests sent out by the Alumni Office. Those who did not return the form but wish to may send the information for use in the regular Roll Call section of the magazine.