

BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS

Entertaining, colorful, unbreakable, won't spoil in transit. You can't beat books for the people on your list. These books, except "The Sooner Story," (see box) are available from bookstores or the University of Oklahoma Press, 1005 Asp, Norman, OK 73019.

Roadside Trees and Shrubs of Oklahoma
By Doyle McCoy

The perfect guide for weekend naturalists and serious students alike. McCoy covers all of the counties in the state to provide over 150 entries with 156 color illustrations. 116 pages. Paperback.

$9.95

The Life and Art of Jerome Tiger War to Peace, Death to Life
By Peggy Tiger and Molly Babcock

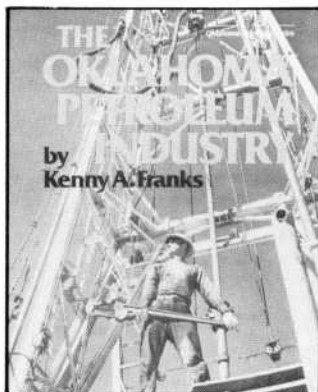

Jerome Tiger was a talented Creek-Seminole artist whose style influenced and extended the dimensions of Indian Art. Here is the largest collection of Tiger art ever assembled, with over 300 color and black-and-white illustrations. 286 pages.

$45.00

Oklahoma Memories
Edited by Anne Hodges Morgan and Rennard Strickland

This is an irresistible glimpse of Oklahoma history from the pioneer days to the present as seen through the firsthand accounts of twenty-seven men and women from all walks of life. Oklahoma Memories will take you from the land runs to the Dust Bowl to life in the Choctaw Nation and to the opulence of the Skirvin Hotel lobby. 320 pages, 12 original drawings. Also available in paperback.

$16.95 hardcover, $8.95 paperback

The Oklahoma Petroleum Industry
By Kenny A. Franks

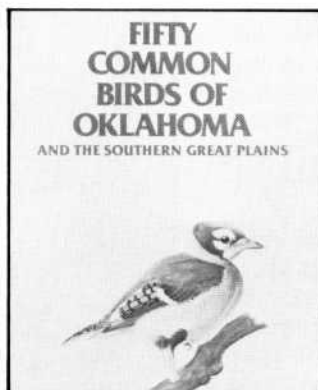

In words and many rare photographs, here in one volume is the full story of the Oklahoma petroleum industry, and its impact on both the state and the nation. 284 pages, illustrations.

$17.50

Oklahoma A History of Five Centuries
Second Edition
By Arrell Morgan Gibson

With refreshing candor, one of Oklahoma's most eminent historians traces the events and achievements of the state and its people from prehistoric times to the present. Previously published by Harlow, this profusely illustrated history book is a must for all Oklahomans. 328 pages.

$17.50

Fifty Common Birds of Oklahoma and the Southern Great Plains
By George Miksch Sutton

Written and illustrated by the dean of American wildlife artists, this text is a delightful collection of personal anecdotes — brief personal essays — on each species of common birds in Oklahoma and the southern Great Plains. 113 pages, 51 color illustrations.

$9.95 hardcover, $6.95 paperback

William Robinson Leigh Western Artist

By D. Duane Cummins
Foreword by Fred A. Myers

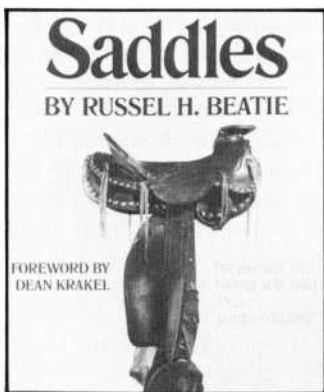

Newspapers and critics called Leigh the "last of the great Russell-Remington-Leigh triumvirate." This book about this Western artist is lavishly illustrated with 30 color plates and 70 black-and-white illustrations. Volume 2 in the Gilcrease-Oklahoma Series on Western Art and Artists. 224 pages.

$19.95

Oklahoma Homes Past and Present
By Charles R. Goins and John W. Morris

A sumptuous pictorial record of the state's unusual and varied architectural styles, reflecting the historical and cultural background of Oklahomans. 269 pages, 24 color plates, and 394 black-and-white illustrations.

$25.00

Saddles
By Russel H. Beattie

Here is the ultimate book on saddles for horse and saddle enthusiasts alike. This over-size volume provides the history, design, decoration, and evolution of the saddle, with over 800 illustrations. Useful, absorbing, and a delight to the eye. 391 pages.

$35.00

The Object of My Affection
An Autobiography
By Pinky Tomlin

Pinky Tomlin's life represents an improbable but true success story. From his banjo-picking youth in Durant to Hollywood stardom, Pinky never ceased to be proud of the years he played with the Boomer Band while working his way through the University of Oklahoma. 212 pages, illustrations.

$12.50

The University of Oklahoma and World War II
A Personal Account, 1941-1946

By George Lynn Cross
Foreword by Savoie Lottinville

World War II had a profound effect on American life in general and educational institutions in specific. This is an engrossing account of the University's foresight during that time of rapid change when other institutions were stymied. 298 pages, illustrations.

$15.95

OTHER BOOKS BY GEORGE LYNN CROSS

Professors, Presidents, and Politicians: Civil Rights and the University of Oklahoma, 1890-1968
$17.95

Blacks in White Colleges: Oklahoma's Landmark Cases
$3.95 paperback only

Presidents Can't Punt: The OU Football Tradition
$11.95 hardcover

The Sooner Story

Ninety Years at the University of Oklahoma 1890-1980

Published in celebration of OU's 90th anniversary, this 120-page, 8½-by-11 paperback book is full of historic photographs, personal reminiscences, anecdotes and overviews of the administrations of each of OU's ten presidents. Gift boxed in an OU-red slipcase. Available by mail from the University of Oklahoma Foundation, 660 Parrington Oval, Room 214, Norman, OK 73019.

$10.00 plus $1 postage and handling