CONTENTS

3 EYE OF THE STORM

Sooner meteorologists always have had nature's best weather laboratory, and with the addition of the best in man-made facilities, the Weather Center on north campus has become the site of world-class research and teaching.

11 THANKS TO SCANDINAVIA

Alan Greenberg promised himself that one day he would repay the Scandinavians for their gifts of life to countless Jews during World War II. The recipients of his gratitude are the young people he is bringing to OU.

16 LET KNOWLEDGE GROW

The 1,000 goal-oriented students in the revitalized University Honors Program are not being offered a short cut through college but rather the opportunity for an enriched education tailored to their special abilities.

23 IN THE LINEUP—A BIT OF HISTORY

OU's very first "first lady" recalls her 1888 move from Ohio and life in a border town on the eve of the Land Run of 1889. Mrs. David Ross Boyd also offers an account of the settlers lined up for the run into the Cherokee Strip.

26 "G'DAY, G'DAY, MATES!"

Sooner Magazine's own adventurer, Lynn Grigsby, visits yet another continent — the Land Down Under — this time on a Rotary Foundation scholarship. Come along as she tours Tasmania and cuddles koalas in Aussieland.

ON THE COVER

Armed with state-of-the-art portable Doppler radar, OU graduate students tracking developing severe weather hit paydirt one afternoon in May 1989 when a tornado touched down in the distance, just west of Hodges, Texas. See "Eye of the Storm" on Page 3.

Sooner Magazine is published quarterly in Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer by the University of Oklahoma Foundation Inc., with private funds at no cost to the taxpayers of the State of Oklahoma. The magazine is printed by the Transcript Press, Norman, Oklahoma, intended primarily for private donors to the University of Oklahoma and life members of the University of Oklahoma Alumni Association.

Opinions expressed are those of the author and do not reflect the official position of the University of Oklahoma or of the University of Oklahoma Foundation Inc.

Address all inquiries and changes of address to the Editor, 100 Timberdell Road, Norman, OK 73019. Letters-to-the-editor must be signed. Letters not intended for publication should be so marked.
