

Sooner Snapshots

ALWAYS A FAVORITE PHOTO SITE—The statue of William Bennett Bizzell has stood by passively since 1952 as remarkable changes have taken place on the campus of his university, one of the most satisfying being the increasingly international flavor of its student body. These young people recording a Sooner memory were part of last year's international enrollment of 1,233.