

MISSION OF MERCY—Two years ago the prospects for a life of any kind looked bleak for Jose Sosof, center, victim of a massacre in the obscure Guatemalan town of Santiago Atitlan. But his mother Louisa, left, and father Juan (holding his newborn sister Maria Christina) never gave up hope; neither did a group of Oklahoma human rights volunteers and OUHSC medical personnel. Story on Page 10.