CONTENTS

3 ALL IN THE FAMILY OF MEDICINE

The pioneering OUHSC department of family medicine, scattered for many years in five different buildings and a house trailer, is now the proud occupant of a state-of-the-art facility worthy of its academic and clinical mission.

7 "TIMES ARE PARTICULARLY TENSE RIGHT NOW"

Twenty-five years ago shots rang out at Kent State University, and the reverberations shook campuses throughout the nation. Part 5 of David Levy's series, "Treasures from the Archives," focuses on the reactions in Oklahoma.

14 "JACK"

Broadway producer and OU alumnus Max Weitzenhoffer made good on his promise to bring professional theater experience to Sooner students with the Rupel Jones Theater debut of a brand new musical based on the Kennedys.

22 NEW SUPERSTARS IN TOWN

An intensive recruiting effort targeting areas of greatest research potential has attracted nine nationally and internationally prominent scientists to the faculty of the University of Oklahoma's Health Sciences Center.

27 CHAUTAUQUA MAN

Don't even think of challenging Danney Goble on the history of politics and the South, particularly Oklahoma. He is apt to assume one of his historical personas and reenact the whole fascinating story from the Civil War onward.
