

Robert Taylor

NEW HOME FOR AN OLD FRIEND—Now retired from active duty, the original Sooner Schooner is ensconced in the Clarke-Anderson Room, a recent addition to Oklahoma Memorial Union. Located just west of the Will Rogers Room on the Union's ground floor, this room with its 36 booths wired for laptop computers has become a popular gathering place for OU students. Other decorating touches include items from the Ruf/Neks spirit organization and large historical photos of campus life.