Swing off Highway 9, down the newly widened, lighted, and landscaped Chautauqua Avenue, turn right onto J. Willis Stovall Drive, and you will have joined the 300,000-plus museum goers who in the past year have experienced the excitement of the new Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History. This special issue of Sooner Magazine is devoted to the facility, the collections, the exhibits, and the people who are making museum history at the University of Oklahoma.
