"THE GUARDIAN"—Enoch Kelly Haney's sculpture of the Native American warrior stands watch from atop the new State Capitol Dome in Oklahoma City and also over the University of Oklahoma's Norman campus. Cast at The Crucible foundry in Norman, the original figure, without his spear, is 17 feet tall. The University's 7-foot casting is mounted in the southwest corner of the Bizzell Memorial Library Plaza and is the gift of the Class of 2002.
