FERN HOLLAND—From Oklahoma to Europe to Africa and finally to Iraq, OU graduate Fern Holland vigorously pursued the cause of human rights until terrorists' bullets ended her life at the age of 33. Forsaking the material rewards from a promising private legal career, she chose to use her talent and training far from home through the Peace Corps and the American Refugee Committee. In Iraq she investigated the atrocities of the Saddam Hussein regime and helped coalesce the country's women's rights movement. Little wonder that at OU she was nicknamed "Fearless Fern."
