CONTENTS

3 INSIDE BRUCE GOFF'S CREATIVE MIND

Many of the controversial architect's most fascinating designs were never built or have been destroyed, yet they live again in a technologically aided exhibit at the Fred.

8 THE MAN BEHIND THE GENIUS

Goff was more than a brilliant architect; he was also a captivating teacher and mentor whose open, enthusiastic personality built a devoted following.

10 WHERE IDEAS COME ALIVE

OU engineering student teams have everything they need in the new state-of-the-art Lawrence G. Rawl Practice Facility to transform their ideas into concrete form.

16 ONLY THE INTREPID NEED APPLY

A falconer from age 14, Lauren McGough achieved her dream experience with a Fulbright grant sending her to live and hunt with golden eagles on the Mongolian steppes.

22 TESTING FOR ATHLETES AT RISK

A trainer-physician team at OU is alerting the nation's athletic programs to a common misdiagnosis that could endanger the lives of the players in their care.

27 "BULLY" KEPT HIS LIFE ON TRACK

Owen Hewett has been successful professionally and personally, thanks to parents who rejected the idea his cerebral palsy sentenced him to a lesser quality of life.
