

Jawanza Bassue

CAMP CRIMSON – Ivonne Sandoval from Hewitt, Texas, walks through a spirit tunnel made up of upperclass student counselors on her way to check-in at Couch Center during the Boomer Session of Camp Crimson July 14. Sandoval was one of more than 1,800 incoming freshmen who took part in one of three sessions of the orientation camp, a three-day, two-night crash course on all things Sooner. Events ranged from informal meetings with faculty to splashdowns at the Murray Case Sells Swim Complex.