“TOP DOG ON CAMPUS” — Wearing a specially tailored cap and gown, Samson, a two-year-old yellow Labrador retriever, went through both the College of Allied Health Convocation and OU-Tulsa’s spring Commencement ceremonies to receive his honorary diploma, marking completion of his Therapeutic Service Dog training. While Samson was learning his trade, he was teaching Rehabilitation Sciences students how valuable a resource a service animal can be for the physically impaired who do not need 24/7 care. Article on Page 10.
