CONTENTS

4 A PLACE OF HEALTH AND HOPE

Tulsans knew the late Wayman Tisdale as hometown hero, OU star, noted jazz musician. Now the medical facility bearing his name is improving their lives.

10 SOONERS ON THE ROAD

The Sooner alumni connection can start early and last long, as current students travel the country to interact with those who share their experiences and devotion to OU.

13 THE AMAZING TRAVELS OF GEORGE AND CECELIA MCGHEE

The late U.S. ambassador, his wife and their children went everywhere, and everywhere they went, they amassed a remarkable collection now in its permanent home at OU.

16 A PERFORMANCE WORTHY OF PRINCES

The world's premier Haydn festival will open in an Austrian palace in September with an OU performance of The Seasons, staged as original ballet with chorus and orchestra.

22 ENGINEERING A HEALTHY HEART

John Dyer, an electrical engineer on the Norman campus, is making important contributions to the research and treatment of heart patients at OUHSC in Oklahoma City.

28 BEHIND THE SCENES

Sports fans always knew that assistant Gomer Jones was essential to the success of Bud Wilkinson's football juggernaut, but often overlook the role of Port Robertson.
