CONTENTS

4 AHEAD OF THE STORM

The University of Oklahoma leads the nation in all things weather-related. The remarkable new Radar Innovations Laboratory only enhances and expands that reputation.

10 FOSTERING HOPE

Foster parents face many challenges in blending the children in their care into their families, one of which is dealing with health needs that can be complex and expensive to treat.

14 THE SWEET TASTE OF SUCCESS

Reese Travis, a former walk-on who lettered on the 2000 national championship football team, has gone on to head one of the country's fastest growing food-service chains.

18 THE WOW! FACTOR AT BIZZELL

Step into the elevator at the University's main library, go down a level and enter a world of collaborative learning made possible by the latest information technology.

24 BRIDGING THE GAP

A College of Engineering summer program offers entering freshmen a hands-on opportunity to explore academic options through a competition Rube Goldberg would have loved.

28 SPLASH, DASH AND RIDE

Not all gifted athletes on the OU campus are to be found among the student body. Three of the most notable are internationally competitive triathletes who have day jobs.
