

Photo provided

Lenette Lobban

SOONER MAGAZINE

Volume 37 Number 3

for private donors to the University of Oklahoma and members of the University of Oklahoma Alumni Association

4 THE LESSONS OF SISTER ROSEMARY When a grieving father and a courageous nun joined forces to combat the debilitating effects of Uganda's civil war on its people, they offered OU students and faculty the ultimate test of real-world challenges.

10 BEST OF BOTH WORLDS Students who attend OU's international campus in Arezzo, Italy, not only get the experience of living abroad, they can do so while taking core classes in several majors, including business and engineering.

14 A NEW FRONTIER FOR CYBERSECURITY After hacks of the DNC, Sony and other entities both public and private, OU computer science professor Qi Cheng has seen his cybersecurity classes grow in popularity.

16 EARNING HIS MASTERS OU golfer Brad Dalke brushed shoulders with Bubba Watson, Jordan Spieth and other greats on the hallowed grounds of the Augusta National Golf Club during his first invitation to the Masters in April.

24 OUR MAN IN THE MIDDLE EAST OU professor Joshua Landis did not set out to become an international voice on political unrest in the Middle East, but his knowledge and experience put him at the center of explaining the complexities of a global hotspot.

In this issue

SPRING 2017