

Epilogue

BEAUTIFUL BIZZELL - Bizzell Memorial Library has been named one of the 18 most stunning libraries in the world by Architectural Digest. Built in 1928 and named for OU's fifth president, William Bennett Bizzell, the "beautifully designed" library has inspired awe in students for almost 90 years, with the Great Reading Room on the second floor a must-see spot for parents and visitors. Designed by the firm Layton Hicks & Forsyth, the building was listed as a National Historic Landmark in 2001.
