

Sooner grandchildren! Here are some, and let's have more next month. The young man at the immediate right is the grandson of the first woman graduate of the university, Mrs Fantine Samuels Paxton, '01 arts-sc. He is Joseph Paxton McCrimmon, son of Dr Herman P. McCrimmon, '22 sc., M.D. '25 and Mrs Adelaide Paxton McCrimmon, '24 arts-sc., of Rockford, Illinois. Joseph is five months old. On Joseph's right is the family of Carl Preihs, ex '16 and Mrs Gladys Crawford Preihs, ex '16, of Pana, Illinois. The children are Carlene, age ten years, on the left, and Ida May, age eleven, on the right. The young ladies are the grandchildren of Samuel S. Crawford, veteran superintendent of the University Press. Below, on the left is Miss Dorothy June Mitschrich, age three months. Miss Dorothy is the daughter of H. C. Mitschrich, '28 eng. and Mrs Mertis Stockton Mitschrich, '28 home ec., of Clinton, Oklahoma, where Mr Mitschrich is district manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. On the lower right are Mr Paul Campbell, jr., a native Oklahoman age seven years, and his sister Miss Virginia Lu Campbell, a native of Nebraska, age two and a half years. Their parents are among the far North Sooners, Mr Paul Campbell, '21 arts-sc., M.A. '25, and Mrs Alma Douthit Campbell, '20 arts-sc., of Butte, Montana, where Mr Campbell is the scout executive of the Silver Bow Area council of the Boy Scouts of America about them. Bartering over price is not an insult, but questioning the quality of the wares is. In fact, although generally cruder than the exquisitely handwrought brass of Persia or Syria, the articles are for the most part made in lofts over the shops, where lathe machines are no doubt employed, but no mass production methods, and they are the nearest approach to handmade articles of everyday utility that are produced in this country.

The windows of the shops are tiny, as though glass were a luxury, but they glitter in the gloom with their overweight of display. The people in the streets wear European clothes, of course, but as though uncomfortable and somewhat strange. Their eyes often have that glint produced
