

Sooner roll call

Editor's note—Due to the limited space available to the magazine, a new system of abbreviations for the schools and colleges is introduced in this issue. These are: as for Arts and Sciences; fa for Fine Arts; sc for any science degree; eng for Engineering; pharm for Pharmacy; med for Medicine; ed for Education; he for Home Economics.

The closing date for this issue of The Sooner Magazine was September 17. The closing date for the next issue will be October 6. Please address to the editor any news happenings concerning Sooners. The editor welcomes kodak snaps of new Sooner babies. The MAGAZINE belongs to the Association but it represents the Association only in the degree that each member becomes a reporter.

DISCOVERY AND LEARNING

Education, in the large, is concerned with achievement—achievement in all of these realms of human endeavor. Life is lived at the highest level by those who have achieved high rating in all of these. But few of us ever have our lives enriched by the conquests of all these aspects of achievement. It not infrequently happens that the wealthy man is frail physically. The scholar—the man of learning—is often a social recluse, the artist is frequently too subjective to be human, and the devout man of God is often prejudiced against knowledge. Learning, therefore, as a function of ed-
