

Here's Good News for Sooner Football Fans

Football ticket prices for the four home games at Owen field this fall have been reduced approximately 20 per cent. For the first time in thirteen years there will be no $2.50 games on the University of Oklahoma football slate this fall. Top price for the approximately 15,000 reserved seats available in the west wing of Memorial stadium will be but $2 each for the Kansas State, Missouri and Nebraska contests and only $1.50 for the Tulsa university game.

A general admission section of approximately 12,000 seats in the east wing of Memorial stadium will be offered at a price of $1.50 per seat at the Kansas State, Missouri and Nebraska games and only $1 for the Tulsa university game, these seats going on sale at the stadium gate on the day of the game.

The new price scale on each of Oklahoma's four home games this coming season:

Reductions of Approximately 25 to 40 Percent on Texas Game

Last year box seats to the Texas-Oklahoma game sold for $4 and reserved seats for $3. This season athletic officials of the University of Oklahoma and Texas have succeeded in reducing the price of box seats 40 per cent and reserved seats 25 per cent. No special price is being made for end seats this year. Also a reduction of 50 per cent has been secured in the Fair Park admission charge. In past seasons it has cost spectators to Texas-Oklahoma games 50 cents admission into Fair park. This year the charge has been reduced to 25 cents.

	Price	Federal Tax	Total
Box seats	$2.50	.25	$2.75
Reserved Seats (west side)	2.27	.23	2.50
Reserved Seats (east side)	2.00	.20	2.20

HOW TO ORDER SEATS FOR HOME GAMES

Address all orders for tickets to Ben G. Owen, Athletic Director, Fieldhouse, University of Oklahoma, Norman, Okla., specifying your choice of seats, paying for same by personal check, cashier's check or money order and enclosing 20 cents extra for postage and registration. These instructions apply to the Texas-Oklahoma game at Dallas as well as the four games at Norman with Tulsa university, Kansas State, Missouri and Nebraska. Don't forget to include the federal tax when paying for your seats. Tickets for all home games will go on sale September 15. Thereafter they will be mailed out the same day order for them is received. Persons who buy tickets for more than one game should consult the stadium section diagram and stipulate in his order what section he desires. Thus identical seats for the big home games may be sent at one early mailing. Earliest purchases will naturally get the choice seats and get them for the whole season.
