Two prophets of a new era

Two famous visitors delighted University of Oklahoma audiences during the last several months. The upper view shows Bertrand Russell, famous mathematician and philosopher, talking with President Bizzell in the latter's office. The lower view shows Norman Thomas, Socialist nominee for president in 1928, at the Faculty club December 5. Mr Thomas is seated in the center of the first table. At his right is Rev Nicholas Comfort, director of the school of religion. At his left is Dr H. L. Dodge, dean of the graduate school
