

Alumni Clubs Active

A SOONER Alumni club was organized at Hugo and special luncheons were held at Durant and McAlester early in February with Lewie Hardage and John "Bo" Rowland, Sooner football coaches, and Frank S. Cleckler, Alumni secretary, as special guests.

Fannie Glenn, '20as, '29M.A., Hugo, was elected president at the organization meeting presided over by O. A. "Dutch" Brewer, '17as, '20law. Sixty-five alumni were present. A number of them were from Antlers and Idabel. It was voted that the new club should draw its membership from the three communities.

Louie Gossett, '23law, Antlers, was elected vice-president and Bitsy Cook, '31as, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

The two Sooner coaches and the Alumni secretary made reports of news from the University and at all three meetings Coach Hardage showed motion picture films of Sooner football games of the past season.

James W. Batchelor, '28as, '29law, was chairman at the Durant meeting at which forty alumni were present. The luncheon was held in the Bryan hotel.

Motion pictures of the Sooner-Vanderbilt game, the Sooner-Nebraska game and the Sooner-Texas game will be shown by Coach Hardage who is becoming an expert motion picture operator. Lee Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller, Ed Bennett and Ralph M. Shelton, all of Hugo; Olen McKinney, Louis Schwiening, Dick Dudley, J. H. Heald, and Louie Gossett, all of Antlers; John A.
