Who's Who On the Campus

As a member of the 1933 graduating law class, Harry A. Pines, Tulsa, has made a very creditable record in forensic, and other campus activities.

His forensic activities include three years on the Varsity debate team, presidency of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity, chief justice of Francis bar, Congress literary society, and the WNAD announcing staff. As president of the Oratorical council, Pines promulgated the first university intramural debate tournament this year.

Harry A. Pines, '33

Other activities include membership on the Interfraternity council, Pe-et, senior honorary order, Inter-church council, and presidency of Menorah society. Pines won the Menorah society national inter-collegiate award for 1930.

Harry was a member of the Varsity debate team which met Baylor university recently in one of the three Wilson Handbook debates which Oklahoma has had the privilege of participating in during the last several years. Subject of the debate was "Resolved, that the Stimson doctrine of non-recognition of territory acquired through treaty violations should be condemned."

He plans to practice law in Tulsa.
