Who's Who On the Campus

When one student makes a straight "A" average during a semester of his college work, he is termed brilliant, but when two brothers make straight "A" averages, and during the same semester, no doubt it is little short of genius.

Early grade reports show that two brothers, both university students, accomplished this remarkable feat during the fall semester. They are John and Harry

John and Harry Alley

Alley, sons of John Alley, director of the School of Citizenship and Public Affairs.

John is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, and is majoring in French. His memberships in campus organizations include Phi Eta Sigma, honorary freshman society, Pi Sigma Alpha, national political fraternity, Kappa Gamma Epsilon, modern language society, and Delta Tau Delta. He was also a member of President Bizzell's "Honor Class" for 1931-32, which consists of a group chosen from the most outstanding junior students in the university each year. He holds a cadet commission as lieutenant colonel in the R.O.T.C. and won a sabre for the best drilled battalion during the first semester.

Harry is enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences and is majoring in government. He is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Tau Omega, honorary aviation fraternity, Delta Tau Delta, and was selected as a member of President Bizzell's "Honor Class" for 1932-33.

Both boys spent a year abroad. John was enrolled two semesters at the University of Grenoble, in the French Alps, while Harry took private lessons in French. They both speak French fluently.
