Who's Who On the Campus

James Hawes, Norman, was named the most outstanding man student at the University and was presented with a silver loving cup by dads of University students when they held their annual meeting this fall on the campus.

Hawes is editor of the yearbook which will be released when school is dismissed next spring. He also has been active in numerous campus organizations.

Last year, he was president of the junior honor class that met weekly with Dr. W.B. Bizzell to study subjects of cultural interest.

Hawes was a member of the yearbook staff for three years before he was elected editor.

He has been a member of the Y.M.C.A. cabinet and a member of the Congress Literary society.

Other organizations in which he is active include Skeleton Key, leadership fraternity; Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic fraternity; the League of Young Democrats; and the University debate squad.

During his four years at the University, he has amassed 80 hours of "A," 16 hours of "B" and 12 hours of "C." He plans to study law after he has been awarded his bachelor of arts degree.
