contributed to that unpopular number was experienced early in the season.

The scores of the first four games follow:

Oklahoma 36,	Southern Methodist	28
Oklahoma 37,	Southern Methodist	23
Oklahoma 58,	Oklahoma A. & M.	33
Oklahoma 43,	Iowa State college	20
Totals 174,		109

All four of the tilts were played in the recently redecorated Sooner Fieldhouse, which has proved of some advantage to the Oklahomans. When the McDermott-men take to the road they expect to find the going a little rougher, especially at Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska.

The leading scorers for Oklahoma in
the first games follow:

	FG	FT	PF	TOT. PTS.
Browning, g	15	10	11	40
Main, f	16	6	7	38
Bross, f	8	5	1	21
Warren, f	7	3	3	17

Co-ordinating Board Progresses

Three studies to guide it in any future action toward unifying education in state schools under the "Greater University of Oklahoma" plan have been ordered made by the coordinating board meeting early in January.

The three surveys include:

1. A meeting of registrars of all educational institutions to study methods of keeping registry office records with the view of adopting identical methods under the plan of unification.

2. A meeting of treasurers and auditors to study methods of keeping financial records with the view of adopting identical methods under the plan of unification. A representative from the state examiner's office and a financial expert from outside the state will attend this meeting and contribute to the study.

3. A study of the needs for higher education in the state. Representatives of all Oklahoma schools will assist in this survey which will show the number of high school graduates attending colleges and universities. This study also will compare Oklahoma college attendance with that of other states, particularly those states in which educational institutions have been developed to a high degree.

That these three studies be made immediately was decided by representatives from twenty-three of Oklahoma's higher educational institutions. Work on the surveys will be started immediately, but no time limit on the completion of the studies has been set.
