

Basketball Off to Strong Start

S. M. U. Defeated in Season's Opener

Coach McDermott

Oklahoma's twenty-seventh basketball season opened with a bang when Coach Hugh V. McDermott's proteges downed the S.M.U. Mustangs December 19 and 20, to the tune of 37 to 29 and 37 to 28. Nine more games will be played during February, four of which will take place in Norman when the Sooners engage Missouri, Nebraska, and Kansas State. February's sport program will be rounded out by wrestling matches with four of the strongest state teams, including what promises to be another thrilling encounter with the Oklahoma Aggies when they come to Norman, February 16.
