Class of '12

WHICH of the University's thirty-seven graduating classes has shown the most loyalty to its University? Here's a question that would require a consideration of many activities and evidences of loyalty before it could be answered. Nevertheless, the class of 1912 does lay claim to the title of Soonerland's best graduating class because it holds the most Life Memberships in the Alumni association. A dozen members of that class have become active in the association for life.

NOT FAR behind—in fact only one membership—is the class of 1914 which also has played an important part in alumni activities. The classes of 1920 and 1913 have ten and nine memberships, respectively, to hold third and fourth places.

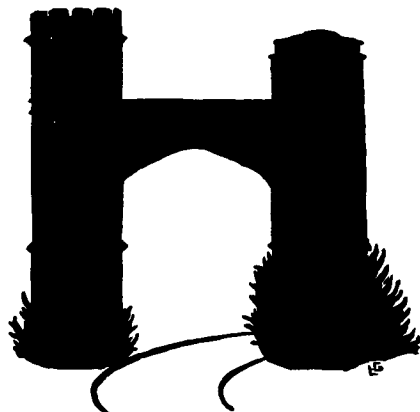

WHERE does your class stand in Life Membership ratings? Why have the classes of 1912, 1914, 1920 and 1913 forged ahead of all other groups that have gone out from the University since the turn of the century?

A LIFE MEMBERSHIP costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. The fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION maintains a number of services and has a number of activities that are important to the University of today and to its reputation of tomorrow. As well as publishing The Sooner Magazine, the Association maintains a Teachers Placement Bureau for graduates, assists the University when help from its graduates is needed, encourages the organization of O.U. alumni groups throughout the state and country, and is interested in a number of other important projects.

BOOST YOUR CLASS in Membership ratings by making your first payment or a payment in full today to

Union Building, University of Oklahoma,
Norman, Oklahoma.
