

The 1934 Class

NEWs from members of the 1934 graduating class continues to drift into the Alumni association office on the campus as the new Sooners are taking positions and adjusting themselves in the business and professional world.

Two previous notes about what the 1934 class members are doing have been carried in the magazine. Many more have been heard from through the Alumni association.

Notes from graduates are always appreciated by the association when new positions have been secured, when marriages, births and transfers to new communities are announced.

Mary Frances Stewart, for instance, became high school librarian at Mercedes, Texas, this fall and reports that she is enjoying the warm climate of the Rio Grande Valley and has made a number of trips into Mexico since she took the position in Mercedes.

Elizabeth Mary Bevan has become assistant art teacher at the Jefferson Davis school in Oklahoma City.

Grace Carr, who was graduated during the summer session, is teaching in the Ardmore city school system.

Sylvia Metzger became Mrs. Tom C. Wright during the summer and is living in Pierre, South Dakota, where Wright, '32ex, is employed by Swift and company.

Victor Eckler recently was appointed assistant county attorney of Jefferson county. The county seat is at Waurika.

Maude Blue is director of art in the public schools at Ponca City.

Wilbur Wilson is practicing law in Norman.

Gaston L. Little is enrolled at the University as a graduate student.

Mrs. Crystal Wiley Bailey, after spending the summer at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, is back in Norman.

Carl D. Barker is a student at the University of Arkansas medical school, Little Rock. He completed three months of internship at the Sanitarium of Paris, Texas.

One of the class of '34, who is now attending West Point, is shown here with his play-mate, Lee Bong Quong, Sigma Chi culinary artist for the past dozen years. Dunlap, if he succeeds in handling a tough mathematics team, is a likely prospect for the Army football team next fall.

Louise Barnett is working in the advertising department of the John A. Brown store in Oklahoma City.

Levi S. Bisel is employed by the R. J. Greenwood and company in the drug department at Skiatook.

Bill Bollinger is working for Desmond's in Los Angeles, California. His address is 7500 Halldale avenue.

Mrs. Mary Bowen is enrolled for graduate study at the University.

Philip A. Brady is affiliated with the Wirt Franklin Petroleum corporation in Oklahoma City.

Viola Brerton is keeping books in Dallas. Her address is 3605 Beverly Drive, Dallas, Texas.

Elizabeth Burns is engaged in graduate study at the University.

Pierce E. Cantrell is enrolled in the law school.

T. H. Carter is working in the accounting department of the Mid-Continent Petroleum corporation at Tulsa.

Ralph Carver is working for Leonard Reynolds, '24pharm, in the Ozark Pharmacy in West Tulsa.

John M. Clayton is employed in the executive department of the Gulf Production company, Houston, Texas.

Dr. John K. Coker is at the San Diego County Hospital, San Diego, California.

Ruth Craig is working at the Y.W.C.A. in Oklahoma City.

J. E. Engleman is a graduate student at the University.

Ralph C. Erwin has been admitted to the University law school.

Jesse R. Field is practicing law in Hobart.

Leon Fisher has gone in business with his father in Oklahoma City. His address is 223 West Grand.

Betty Foreman is working in the office of an abstract company in Sallisaw.

Mildred French is teaching school in Roswell, New Mexico.

Dot Jeannette Gifford is doing graduate work in physics at the University.

Dorothy Jayne Henry has been a case worker in the McAlester transient bureau.

Russell C. Henry is associated with his father in Altus in the wholesale and retail marketing of refined petroleum products.

Phillip Webster Horn is attending the Tulane medical school.

Joe C. Jackson is teaching public speaking and debate at Sulphur high school.

Dr. E. O. Johnson is an interne at St. John's hospital in Tulsa.

Jewel B. Campbell is head of the jewelry department at the B. and O. store in Temple.

Dorothy Burge is teaching school at Kaw City.

Lois Wynn is engaged in library work at Ochelata.

Ruth Wooten is teaching mathematics in the Konawa junior high school.

Maria Ellen Johnson, after spending the summer in Europe, is now attending New York University.

Hugh Leonard is in the accounting department of the Halliburton Cementing company at Duncan.

Joe McGuire is working in the Liberty National bank in Oklahoma City.

A. H. Manes is attending the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Seminary Hill, Texas.

Dr. Coyne Campbell Lectures

Dr. Coyne Campbell, '24as, who has been a practicing physician in Oklahoma City for the past year, is delivering a series of lectures concerned with neurology at the University medical school in Oklahoma City.

Dr. Campbell, after completing work in medical school, specialized in psychiatry and has been handling mental problem cases in Oklahoma City.

Recently, he was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Philosophy club on the University campus. He talked on "Mysticism and Modern Thought."

Dr. Campbell a dozen years ago organized the Philosophy club and was one of its most active members. When Dr. Campbell came to the campus recently, Dr. Pat Nagle, '26bs, '28M.D., another of the organizers of the Philosophy club, came with him.

Dr. Nagle also is a practicing physician in Oklahoma City.