ROBERT S. GORDON, of the National Dairy Products corporation, New York City, has put his class of 1920 back in the running for top position in the Life Membership race. The new Life Membership of Mr. Gordon gave his class a total of eleven Life Members and tied it with the Class of 1913 for second place. Both have one less than the leading 1914 class which lost one of its names as a result of a recent protest.

FRED CAPSHAW was listed with the 1914 group, but was moved to the 1913 class, for it was with that class he was a freshman. He took a B.A. degree in 1913 and a law degree in 1914.

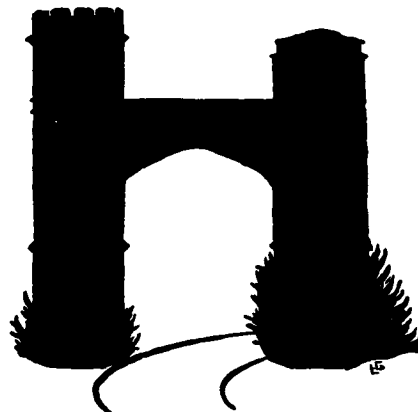

TWO OTHER NEW Life Memberships boosted a pair of younger classes. Hal Muldrow, jr., Norman insurance agent and former high school football coach, gave his 1928 classmates a boost with a new Life Membership. D. Horton Grisso, assistant cashier at the Security National Bank, Norman, gave the 1930 class a lift with a new Life Membership.

THE CLASSES of 1921, 1915, 1910 and 1922 follow close behind the leading 1914, 1920, 1913 and 1912 groups.

A LIFE MEMBERSHIP costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. The fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION maintains a number of services and has a number of activities that are important to the University of today and to its reputation of tomorrow. As well as publishing The Sooner Magazine, the Association maintains a Teachers Placement Bureau for graduates, assists the University when help from its graduates is needed, encourages the organization of O. U. alumni groups throughout the state and country, and is interested in a number of other important projects.
