1926 Scores

The Life Membership page, and all of the implications it carries for the University of Oklahoma Association, greets Dr. P. Richard Auriemma,'26bs in Med,'28M.D., Los Angeles, California, its latest addition.

Doctor Auriemma's joining of the Life Membership group boosts his class of 1926 into a tie with five other classes for fifteenth place in Life Membership standings. As one of the University's younger graduating classes, it is moving up the line toward the top held by those 1914 stalwarts.

A year ago, when the 1914 class held its twenty-year reunion, Doctor Leonard Logan,'14, wrote in The Sooner Magazine that his class led all others in almost every phase of activity from having the most outstanding graduates to possessing the largest number of children. The class has thirteen Life Members and stands three notches over the 1912 and 1920 classes.

A glance through the Membership list shows that no class before 1906 has a Life Member and that the 1934 and 1935 classes are as yet unrepresented. Who'll be the first?

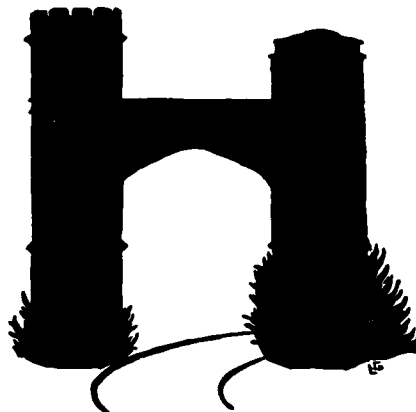

Every class between 1906 and 1933 has at least one Life Member.

A Life Membership costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. The fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

A Life Membership carries with it a life subscription to The Sooner Magazine. It assists the association in the publication of the magazine and the quarterly bulletin. Among the multiple activities of the association are: maintains alumni files; maintains a teachers placement bureau; stimulates Alumni club activities; plans and directs Homecoming, Commencement and Class Reunions; maintains alumni headquarters in the Oklahoma Union; and plans and directs alumni projects.
