Two Lawyers Join

Paul A. Walker, '12law, member of the Federal Communications Commission, is shown above signing on the dotted line for a life membership in the University of Oklahoma Association. On the right is T. M. "Ted" Beaird, alumni executive secretary, and the man by the microphone is Homer Heck, assistant to Beaird.

TWO MORE life memberships in the University of Oklahoma association were received in November. The new life members are Paul A. Walker, '12law, Oklahoma City, member of the Federal Communications Commission, and Laurence E. Beattie, '17as, '20law, Ardmore attorney.

MR. WALKER'S MEMBERSHIP puts the class of 1912 one notch higher in the class standings, and sends it into a tie with the class of '20 for second place in number of life memberships. Both '12 and '20 are represented now by a dozen life memberships each.

MR. BEATTIE'S DECISION to take a life membership brings the score for the class of '17 to a total of six, and lifts it out of a tie with the class of '19.

BOTH OF THE new life members are attorneys by profession. Mr. Walker was a member of the first graduating class of the University law school, and was the University's first debate coach. He also made his first radio address over WNAD, the University radio station.

A LIFE MEMBERSHIP in the University of Oklahoma Association costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. All such payments go into the life membership fund which is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

THE LIFE MEMBERSHIP plan is a sound, practical method of financing the association's activities, including the Sooner Magazine, Teachers Placement Bureau and other activities, and is a convenience and an actual economy to alumni and former students who want to maintain their associations with the University and with other alumni.

BOOST YOUR CLASS in Membership ratings by making your first payment or a payment in full today to
T. M. "Ted" Beaird, Alumni Secretary,
Union Building, University of Oklahoma, Norman.
