New staff

By FRANK S. CLECKLER

A NEW staff took charge of the Sooner magazine beginning with this issue, with Roscoe Cate, '26journ, as editor, and James Hawes, '35as, as business manager.

They were appointed by a committee consisting of Earl Foster, '12, '13, president of the University of Oklahoma association, and Frank S. Cleckler, the secretary of the association, who were given authority to fill the positions at the spring meeting of the executive board.

Ernie Hill, '32journ, resigned as editor and business manager last spring when he accepted a position on the editorial staff of the Oklahoma News, Oklahoma City.

The new editor is city editor of the Norman Transcript, and will do the editorial work on the magazine in addition to his duties with the Transcript. Cate is a former editor of the Oklahoma Daily, member of Phi Beta Kappa, and Phi Kappa Sigma social fraternity. He has worked on newspapers in Muskogee, Ponca City and Oklahoma City.

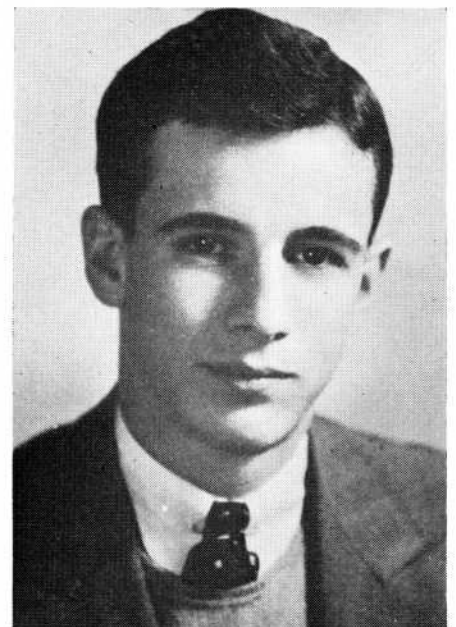

Hawes received a B. A. degree in 1935 and is now a junior in the law school. He was editor of the 1935 Sooner year-book, member of Phi Beta Kappa, president of Skeleton Key honorary, and won
