'34 Scores Twice

THE 1934 GRADUATING CLASS got its first University of Oklahoma Alumni association Life Membership during the past two months—in fact it scored twice when Harry E. Moore, '34, masters in education, and Ralph James, '34as, became Life Members. Mr. Moore will make his home in Pawhuska this fall, where he has been elected superintendent of the public schools, while Mr. James lives in Norman.

THE 1914 CLASS which has always led in Life Memberships until last month when Ben Arnold, Oklahoma City, put the 1920 class into a tie for leadership, again went back to the top when William A. Buttram, '14as, geologist, Puentea, California, sent in his Life Membership. The 1914 class now leads with a total of thirteen Life Members.

A FOURTH new Life Membership was received from Dr. James M. McMillan, '31bs, '33M.D., Supply. It will be counted with the 1933 group.

A LIFE MEMBERSHIP costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. The fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION maintains a number of services and has a number of activities that are important to the University of today and to its reputation of tomorrow. As well as publishing The Sooner Magazine, the Association maintains a Teachers Placement Bureau for graduates, assists the University when help from its graduates is needed, encourages the organization of O. U. alumni groups throughout the state and country, and is interested in a number of other important projects.
