Five New Ones

DURING the past two months, five Oklahoma graduates have become Life Members of the Alumni association.

FIRST, EBERT E. BOYLAN, '17as, general manager of the Caracas Petroleum corporation, Caracas, Venezuela, became a member.

THEN, LEWIS R. MORRIS, '15as., '15M.A., '17law, Oklahoma county attorney, Oklahoma City, became a member. He is on the Alumni association executive board and was president of the association last year.

THREE NEW LIFE MEMBERS in one day set some sort of a modern record. The three were Mrs. Kitty Shanklin Rountree, '23as, homemaker, Oklahoma City, member of Alumni association executive board; Ben Arnold, '20as, '25law, district judge, Oklahoma City; and A. P. "Fish" Murrah, '28law, prominent Oklahoma City attorney.

MR. ARNOLD'S membership ended the long domination of the 1914 class in heading the list in Life Memberships. His was the twelfth one for the 1920 class and put it in a tie with the 1914 class.

MR. MORRIS' membership boosted his class into a tie for fourth place with the 1912 class.

A LIFE MEMBERSHIP costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars a quarter. The fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson. Only the income from the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION maintains a number of services and has a number of activities that are important to the University of today and to its reputation of tomorrow. As well as publishing The Sooner Magazine, the Association maintains a Teachers Placement Bureau for graduates, assists the University when help from its graduates is needed, encourages the organization of O. U. alumni groups throughout the state and country, and is interested in a number of other important projects.
