

More New Sooners

MORE members of the 1935 class have been heard from, and from all appearances it wasn't such a cold, cruel world that awaited them when they stepped down from the platform last June.

Several hundred were heard from last month and their present locations announced in The Sooner Magazine. Here are others with a few of the unique positions heading the list.

F. G. McMurry, Oklahoma City, for instance, is a representative for Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Missouri. Winifred Ketchum is doing social service work in St. Louis, Missouri.

Paul E. Kirkpatrick is attending the Williams Institute of Embalming in Kansas City, Kansas. Helen D. Hawk is doing Little Theatre work in Washington, D. C. and is "seeing the east."

Yvonne Dymond is central staff office supervisor in Oklahoma City for the statewide speech project under the Works Progress Administration. Irene Shaul is assistant state supervisor of the project which is sponsored by T. M. Beard, '21 as, state WPA personnel director.

Josephine Landsittel, now Mrs. Bressemer Holtzschue, is living in Pasadena, California, and is continuing her dramatic work. Gladys Evelynne Floyd is doing social service work in Norman. Wayman Hiner is a pharmacist in Oklahoma City.

Internes, Physicians

The medical school graduates, as usual, are spreading most widely across the country. Added to the many heard from last month are Elsworth L. Gardner, interne at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, Oregon; Frank M. Woods, physician at the Jackson Memorial hospital, Miami, Florida; O. J. Blende, interne, Seattle General hospital, Seattle, Washington; H. R. Cushman, interne, St Paul's hospital, Vancouver, B. C., Canada; and J. G. Johnson, interne, Wesley hospital, Oklahoma City.

Journalists

Leo Turner, news writer, Sherman, Texas, Democrat; Lois Cobb, society editor, McAlester News Capitol; Lucille

Here are two members of the 1935 graduating class—Winifred Ketchum, who is engaged in social service work in St. Louis, Missouri, and Louis Woodruff, who is practicing law in Oklahoma City.

Moore, society editor, Seminole Morning Reporter; Gene White, sports editor and general reporter, Wewoka Times-Democrat; Roy L. Hickox, sports editor, Guthrie Daily Leader.

Librarians

Arthur M. McAnally, librarian, Edinburg, Texas; Opal Murray, public school librarian, Denver, Colorado; Virginia Shire, junior high school librarian, Ponca City; Catheryne Commons, librarian, Mercedes, Texas, public schools.

Attorneys

William L. Brodersen, attorney, Okarche; Floyd H. Norris, attorney, Oklahoma City; William R. Farmer, attorney, Pauls Valley; Byron Hoffman, attorney, Miami; Louis V. Woodruff, attorney, Oklahoma City.

Graduate Students

Jonathan Hoyt, University medical school, Oklahoma City; Aubrey Stowers, medical student, University of Tennessee; John Curris Berry, University medical school, Oklahoma City.

Continuing studies at the University are Margaret Reaves Simpson, Opal McKee Stafford, Margaret Narcissa Vail, Williams Leas, Frances Ray, George Shirk and M. E. Binkley, Harold Brinsmade is enrolled at the El Paso School of Mines. A. Ervine Swift recently received a scholarship from the Evangelical Education Society, Philadelphia, for this year's work at the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Massachusetts. Edith Stephens accepted a service scholarship in the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, and expects to serve eventually in the field of religious education of pre-school children.

Geologists and Related Occupations

W. H. Marshall, United Gas company, Myrtes, Louisiana; Jesse L. Simon, Custer county supervisor for the Oklahoma Geological Survey; F. Marion Setzer, Stanolind Oil and Gas company, Houston, Texas; James Mendenhall, geo-physicist, Dallas, Texas; Richard Carter, geological department of the Gulf Production company, Midland, Texas; Jay B. Wharton, geologist for the Phillips Petroleum company, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Engineers

John K. Whistler, Pure Oil company, Muskogee; Jeff G. Ray, engineer, United States Department of Agriculture, Oklahoma City; Robert F. Long, consulting engineer, junior partner, V. V. Long and Company, Oklahoma City; George A. Weisser, district office of the Bureau of Public Roads, Fort Worth, Texas; Major H. Miner, surveyor, American Seismograph company, Goose Creek, Texas; Lawrence Armstrong, mechanical engineer, Norman; Jean H. Boling, civil engineer, Healdton; Robert K. Henderson, Duncan.

Chemists

Paul H. Horton is a chemist in Oklahoma City, and Scott Reeburgh is a chemical engineer for the Gulf Refining Company, Port Arthur, Texas.

Teachers

Inez Price, primary teacher, Noble; Charlene Handley, teacher, Big Springs, Texas; E. R. Smizer, music teacher,

(TURN TO PAGE 94, PLEASE)

1935 FOOTBALL WINDUP

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 81)

Gunning, but the guard situation will offer a little more of a problem.

Bill Martin, sophomore from Blackwell, is the most likely looking new comer. He is expected to work into a regular position. One place will be open to Jerome "Shocky" Needy, the cleverest passer and floor-man since Bruce Drake, and also John Paul Remy and Jay Thomas.

The McDermott team opened its season, splitting a pair of games against the University of Southern California. The Trojans were champions of the Pacific Coast last year, winning eleven games and dropping one.

They trimmed the Sooners 28 to 27 in their first meeting in the Fieldhouse, but the Oklahomans came back strong in the second game to win with ease. The box score of the second game follows:

SO. CALIF. (28)	FG	FT	PF
Garrison, f	3	0	2
Browning, f	0	2	3
Dornsife, f	0	0	2
Gracin, f	0	0	0
Anderson, f	1	7	2
Hupp, c	2	2	0
Oram, g	2	1	0
Dale, g	0	0	1
Huston, g	0	0	0
	8	12	10
OKLAHOMA (36)	FG	FT	PF
Warren, f	6	1	0
Connelley, f	4	2	3
Gunning, f	0	1	1
Ellsworth, f	0	0	0
Livingston, f	0	0	0
Shirk, f	0	0	0
Otte, f	0	0	0
Nelson, c	0	0	1
Martin, g	2	4	1
Tone, g	0	0	0
Remy, g	0	0	0
Smith, g	0	0	0
Thomas, g	2	0	3
	14	8	9

Score at half: Oklahoma 17. Southern California 12.

Officials: Miller (Iowa) and Pendleton (Westminister).

MORE NEW SOONERS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 84)

Sperry; Regina Hempler, teacher, Moyer; Bernice Hunker, teacher at Fairview school, Cleveland county; Della Mae Grimes, teacher, Chattanooga, Oklahoma; C. Boyd Forbes, teacher, Hastings; Eula Grey Cole, dancing teacher and photographer, Norman; Hester Hughes, teacher, Blanchard; Lota Mae Farley, teacher Gould; Wilma Pearson, English teacher, Higgins, Texas; H. Gray Hilton, teacher, Oklahoma City; James E. Hawk, public school music teacher, Waurika; Lou Verma Cowgill, grade school teacher, Pawhuska.

Homemakers

Mrs. Leta Holtzendorff Perryman, Tulsa; Mrs. Ruth North Staley, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Leona Bellew McConnell, Bethany; and Mrs. Mildred Pate Bailey, Marlow.

Business, Sales, Accountants

William P. Champlin, wholesale grocery business, Lawton; Paul Wilson, accountant, Oklahoma Tax commission, Norman; Milton James Johnson, telephone company, Miami, planning to attend

Kansas City Dental school next year; James Bowman, assistant gas sales supervisor, Seminole; Lawrence Petering, public accountant, Oklahoma City; Viola Carr, accountant, district office of the WPA, Enid; John Cassity, assistant gas sales supervisor, Seminole.

Julius Einhorn, after playing at the Pasadena Community Playhouse and as an extra in the MGM film "Tale of Two Cities," is back in Tulsa employed as a cashier. He plans to go to New York City early in the summer to continue stage work.

Paul Donaldson spent eight weeks in the McBride hospital in Oklahoma City having a leg bone reset.

RICE INSTITUTE

OKLAHOMA

Short shot	Klindworth	2	2	Martin	long shot
			3	Martin	Orr foul
one-hand side	Klindworth	4
long side	Lodge	6
one-hand side	Eaton	8
short shot	Eaton	10
one-hand side	Kelly	12
short shot	Klindworth	14		4	Remy Orr foul
				5	Connelley Lodge foul
one-hand push	Kelly	16		6	Needy Klindworth foul
tip-in	Kelly	18		7	Needy Lodge foul
				9	Tone long shot
fast dribble	Stanford	20
RICE 20 HALF 9 OKLAHOMA
				11	Nelson long side shot
				13	Nelson running hard under goal
				14	Warren Klindworth foul
				16	Nelson one-hand tip-in
				17	Warren Eaton foul
				18	Warren Orr foul
				20	Remy from mid-court center
				22	Connelley short hurried shot
Connelley foul	Klindworth	21
Connelley foul	Klindworth	22		23	Connelley Eaton foul
				24	Connelley Eaton foul
Martin foul	Klindworth	23
				25	Connelley Owen foul
				26	Connelley Owen foul
				28	Nelson long high loop
				30	Nelson tip-in after shot
				32	Connelley long shot
				33	Warren Stanford foul
Shirk foul	Bollman	24
				34	Remy Bollman foul
Tone foul	Kelly	25
Shirk foul	Lodge	26
RICE 26 FINAL 34 OKLAHOMA					