'15 nears the top

FIVE additional Life Memberships, three of them paid in full, came into the Alumni Office during April. They came from several points in Oklahoma, from Texas, from Washington, D. C., and from South America!

The three who spurned the instalment plan and chose to complete the transaction with a single check are Roy St. Lewis, '15, attorney at Washington, D. C.; Lawrence R. Hagy, '23, oil man at Amarillo, Texas; and Joseph C. Gordon, '15, Caripito, Venezuela.

The other two new Life Members both live in Oklahoma. One is William J. Armstrong, '14, '16law, Oklahoma City. Mr. Armstrong is Chief Conservation Officer for the State Corporation Commission.

The other is Herbert Branan, '32, State Representative from Muskogee County and enrolled this winter as a law student in the University. He has taken an active part in legislative affairs connected with education.

New additions to the Life Membership list of the Class of 1915 raise it from fifth to second place in the class rankings. The Class of 1914, with the addition of Mr. Armstrong to its list, holds a narrow lead for first place.
