

Sooner fraternities and sororities present . . .

A salute of honor

Kappa Alpha Theta

For their untiring efforts to help Alpha Omicron chapter continue to function smoothly and efficiently, Kappa Alpha Theta expresses its gratitude to

Mrs. Earl Bentley
Mrs. J. P. Blickensderfer
Mrs. Phillip Boyle
Miss Kathryn Culbert
Miss Wanda Mae Hayes
Mrs. R. L. Huntington
Miss Dora McFarland
Mrs. John H. Turner
Alumnae Clubs and Chapters

To Sooner alumni who have distinguished themselves in various fields, and to those who have given much-appreciated help to the active chapters of their fraternities and sororities

Theta Gamma of Delta Delta Delta Salutes:

Dorothea Stevenson—well known nationally for her art work in Oklahoma murals; chairman of the art committee of the TRident, national publication; designs the distinctive covers for the State Meets and the Yearbooks of the Oklahoma City Alliance, and plans decorations for the Founders' Day Banquet.

Mrs. Daniel Wise Hogan, Jr.,—who was one of Theta Gamma's most active members while attending the University, and is actively continuing work for her sorority in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Hogan is the recently elected President of the Oklahoma Association of Delta Delta Delta and is now busy with plans for the State Meet. She is also Corresponding Secretary of the Oklahoma City Alliance.

Miss Beth Campbell—one of the outstanding journalism students of O.U. during her college career. Her clever witticisms made her a popular toastmistress for several Founders' Day Banquets. She was a feature writer for the Daily Oklahoman, and is now in Washington, D.C., as AP correspondent assigned to accompany Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Oklahoma Alpha of Pi Beta Phi

Salutes:

Mildred Clark, who, both as an active and later as an alumna, by her untiring efforts and valuable advice, has been of great aid to our chapter.

Sammy McCall Burns, whose counsel on financial matters and unerring good taste in decorating have been of untold value to the chapter.

Isobel Jones Campbell, whose accomplishments in the literary world have been an inspiration and a source of pride to the fraternity, and whose services to the active chapter as scholarship advisor have been indispensable.

All those loyal alumnae of the state who, by their financial contributions, their zeal in rushing, and their never-failing interest in our chapter, have aided the active chapter in innumerable ways.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Beta Theta chapter would like to thank:

Katheryn Stacy Brosseau, '29, for contributing to the new Kappa house. Mr. and Mrs. Brosseau are moving to San Antonio soon.

Congratulations to Helen Myers, '32, who is in New York making Victor vocal recordings.

Appreciation to the Oklahoma City Alumnae who will make a scholarship award to the Kappa who shows the most improvement scholastically.

Virginia Kramer Kulp, '32, has recently been appointed finance advisor for Beta Theta.

Geraldine Balbin, '36, sang the leading role in the opera "Lakme" which was presented at the University in April.

THE alumni who take an active interest in affairs of fraternity and sorority chapters at the University of Oklahoma play an important part in constantly improving the standards of the chapters and in keeping their financial affairs on a stable basis. As the work of these alumni leaders often is done quietly and unselfishly, the fraternities and sororities represented on this page present a salute to them, and express appreciation for guidance, assistance and inspiration.

Gamma Phi Beta

Salutes:

Pauline McKinney, Oklahoma City, who at one time when enrolled in the University Law School was an officer in thirteen organizations. Since her graduation in 1923 she has been state director of the transient bureau of the FERA, and later executive secretary of the OERA, as well as supervising three businesses of her own.

Eugenia Kaufman, '17, '22M.A., now assistant professor of modern languages in the University. After studying in Chicago and Mexico she plans to spend some time this summer in California where she will continue study of Spanish survivals in America. Miss Kaufman is chairman of a committee on Pan-American studies connected with the American Association of Teachers of Spanish.

Edith Mahier, another student who later became connected with the University faculty. She is associate professor of art. Miss Mahier did degree work in Newcomb College, New Orleans; figure drawing at the Art Students' league, New York; commercial illustration in the New York School of Fine and Applied Arts; and other work at various places in America and abroad.

Epsilon Alpha of Chi Omega

Wishes to honor:

Gayle McCorkle—one of our youngest alumnae and one very active on the campus during her four years here. She was president of the Choral club, and of Sigma Alpha Iota, Vice-President of W.S.G.A., a member of the Symphony Orchestra and of the WNAD Orchestra. She is now teaching music in the Ponca City schools.

Jessie Lone Clarkson—one of the former presidents of our sorority. She is now a member of the University Fine Arts Faculty.

Mrs. Jennie Erickson Loucks—a charter member of the chapter, and a former member of the University faculty in the College of Fine Arts. She is now financial advisor for the chapter and has been of great service.

Mrs. Margaret Hewgley Singletary—also a former president of the chapter, and now very active in the Oklahoma City Alumnae group.

Kappa Alpha

Salutes these prominent K.A.'s from Beta Eta Chapter:

1. Walter Ferguson—prominent publisher, banker and politician, now deceased.

2. George "Deak" Parker—editor-in-chief of the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

3. Carl Whitman—president of the Post Products Company.

4. Justice Fletcher Riley—Justice of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma.

5. John Joseph Mathews—prominent author on Indian subjects.

Gamma Kappa of Kappa Sigma

Salutes:

E. D. Meacham, '17, former O. U. football coach, professor of mathematics, assistant dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Wesley I. Nunn, '20, advertising manager, Standard Oil Company of Indiana, Chicago, Ill.

E. P. Ledbetter, '14, lawyer, member of the Board of Regents, Oklahoma City.

Dr. Horace Taylor, '17, professor of economics, Columbia University, New York City.

William C. French, '11, dean of School of Education, George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

William C. Lewis, '23, U.S. District Attorney, Oklahoma City.

Everett Drumright, '30, vice-consul, Shanghai.

Alpha Tau Omega

SOONER ITEMS

Joe McBride's recent appointment to the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma climaxed a short but active career of public service and newspaper work. Joe is publisher of the Walters Herald.

Walter M. (Bill) Morgan is with the Daily Oklahoman and the Oklahoma City Times advertising department. A former president of ATO on the campus, he has been president of the alumni association for several years. Dean J. F. Findlay's idea for an Independent Men's Association is being studied by the Deans of Men in many other universities. His desire has been to give to unaffiliated men the benefits offered by fraternities. Joe Whitten, Oklahoma City attorney, has been increasingly successful in his legal work. Among recent graduates, Dudley Tichenor has just been made manager of a radio station in Denver Colorado, and Norman Boke, who received his master's degree from O.U. last year, holds a fellowship at the University of California, where he is working on his Ph.D. degree.

Oklahoma Kappa of Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Salutes:

1. Paul Walker, member of the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D.C.

2. Wayne Bayless, Justice of the State Supreme Court, Oklahoma City.

3. Earl Foster, attorney for the Oil and Gas Division of the State Corporation Commission, and president of the Alumni Association.

4. Fred Newton, '34, most outstanding student, 1932-33.

5. John Moseley, president of Central State Teachers College, Edmond.