Five more life members

ALUMNI SECRETARY TED BEAIRD received five more Life Memberships during the last month, increasing the total to 178 and putting it within striking distance of 200.

Since about fifty wives who are Sooners are officially Life Members also by virtue of their husbands' memberships, the total number of individuals at present is nearly 250.

As all money paid on Life Memberships goes into an endowment fund with only the interest available for alumni association and Sooner Magazine expenses, the Sooners who take out Life Memberships are making a permanent contribution, as well as giving themselves the pleasure of participation in the association's affairs and receiving the Magazine for life.

Two of the new Life Members live out of the state. One is William B. "Bill" Cram, '30as, attorney at St. Louis, Mo., who for a number of years was chief announcer and station manager for WNAD, the University broadcasting station.

The other is Albert Drake, '28bus, Kansas City, Mo., who is the manager there for the State Mutual Life Insurance Company of Massachusetts. He was promoted to this position February 1, 1937. He has also had two years' experience in the home office of the Fort Dearborn Insurance Company of Chicago, and one year's experience in the Kansas City branch of the Fort Dearborn Company. His wife is Gertrude Brown, a Delta Gamma from the University of Illinois, and they have two small children.

David R. Milsten, '25as, '28law, is a new Life Member from Tulsa. He was prominent in campus affairs, and is now a well known attorney in Tulsa. He was admitted to practice in the United States Supreme Court in 1934.

The other two new ones are from Oklahoma City. They are Leonard B. Allen, '37eng, and H. K. McDowell, '24as, salesman. Mr. Allen is the son of Charles P. Allen, auditor for the alumni association.

A Life Membership in the University of Oklahoma Association, which includes a life subscription to The Sooner Magazine, costs $60. This may be spread over a period of three years by paying $5 a quarter. You can become a Life Member simply by mailing a check for $5 to Secretary Ted Beaird, Oklahoma Union building, Norman, with the understanding that you will pay $5 each quarter until the payment of $60 is completed. That pays everything, and there will be no call for dues of any kind after that. And you will receive the ten issues of the Magazine each year for life.
