

As near as your Mailbox

- - - ARE YOUR EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES in OKLAHOMA

through O. U.'s Extension Division

"How Can I Enrol In Correspondence Study?"

A bulletin giving list of courses and full information may be obtained by writing to the Secretary of the Correspondence-Study Department, University of Oklahoma, Norman, Okla.

The student who wishes to begin correspondence work may select courses from the bulletin, then fill out the application blank found therein and mail it to the Department.

"How Much Will This Work Cost Me?"

The fees charged for correspondence courses cover the actual expenses of giving the work. The fees are as follows: High school courses, in cooperation with our WPA project at $1.00 a half unit course. College courses, $5 a semester hour. For credit at the University of Oklahoma for correspondence courses taken from other universities, the student must register through this department. The cost ranges from $5 to $8 a semester hour in different universities.

Enrol at any time---begin work immediately

WHICH CLASS ARE YOU IN? Every county in Oklahoma and every state in the United States are represented in the list of students taking correspondence through the University of Oklahoma Extension Division. The curriculum has been adapted to fit their needs.

Here are the groups. Which one serves you?

1. High school and college students who are forced to drop out of their classes temporarily.
2. Teachers who need additional courses to prepare them for their work.
3. Business and professional men and women who desire better training along special lines.
4. Men and women from all walks of life who feel the need for more information along certain lines, or who wish to grow and keep abreast of the developments of our times.
5. Pupils in small high schools who want to take courses not available locally.

COMPLETE HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION for people who have not had the opportunity to obtain it locally; 30 hours toward a bachelor's degree; 4 hours toward a master's degree; and deficiencies in preparation for graduate work—may be obtained through the correspondence study department of your university extension division.

Courses available include:

High school level	115 half unit courses
Undergraduate level	174 courses
Graduate level	79 courses
General service (no credit)	13 courses

Remember that you enrol at your leisure—and supplies, lesson assignments and text books are in your possession within 24 hours. We are eager to serve you.

All questions should be directed to Louis B. Fritts, Director of Correspondence, University Extension Division, Norman, Oklahoma.

LOUIS B. FRITTS, Director of Correspondence

HERBERT H. SCOTT, Director of Extension

The University of Oklahoma

William Bennett Bizzell, President

