Charles B. Memminger, '14, '33law, O.U. Alumni president, sends this message: "Let's fill the Stadium for Homecoming."

Give Yourself a Treat!

How long has it been since you walked through the beautiful O.U. campus and observed the changes of recent years — and admired the beautiful co-eds and marveled that the old Gym hasn't fallen in yet, and thrilled again to see the stately old Elm at the entrance to the Ad building?

How long since you saw Dean Gitt with his friendly smile, Dean Adams with his salty comments on public affairs, or Dangerfield with his rapier-like irony, or Emil Kraetli with a wisecrack in one hand and a helpful pat on the back with the other, or Guy Y. acting gruff, or Wardell with a new story, or President Bizzell, true scholar and gentleman if there ever was one.

How long since you sat with fifteen thousand or more O.U. fans on a crisp Autumn day and watched the Sooner huskies trot onto Owen Field to be greeted by a roar from the crowd, and then proceed to mop up (we hope) on a well respected foe?

How long since you've seen Jim and Bill and Tom and all those other guys you had such a good time with in school? They're likely to be back for Homecoming. It's your best chance to see them.

GIVE YOURSELF A TREAT THIS YEAR. Join the other Sooners for the 1938 Homecoming Celebration November 11 and 12.

Tickets for the alumni dinner-dance in Oklahoma City Friday night, November 11, may be purchased directly from the Alumni Office. Send football ticket orders to Ticket Manager, Fieldhouse. No other advance preparations necessary. Just get here!
