Where there's a crowd --- there's a reason

Every day, week in and week out, the Union Cafeteria serves meals to an average of five or six hundred persons a day, to say nothing of the hundreds of persons who drop in between meals for coffee or a snack. There must be a reason behind the fact that the Cafeteria is crowded nearly all the time. We believe the crowd is proof that the Union Cafeteria is performing a service appreciated by the student body of the University.
