Be Ready for the Kickoff!

Already, Sooner football fans are talking about the 1939 season, and the interesting prospects for some pretty swell grid-iron battles. Spring practice revealed that the Sooners have some fine new talent to try out this fall, as well as some colorful veterans whose merit is already well known to the fans.

It's several months until the first kickoff, but the time to get ready for it is right now—by placing your order for a season ticket reservation. After all, it's not much fun to have to watch a big game from one of the farthest corners of the Stadium. With season ticket orders coming in like they have for the last couple of months, the good seats won't last long. Better drop a letter or card to Bill Cross at the Fieldhouse and tell him to put you down for one or more season tickets and pick out the best location still available.

Season ticket buyers get first choice of seats—so get your order in early and avoid disappointment!
