

Faculty Page

BY DR. S. ROY HADSELL, '04

DR. M. L. WARDELL, '19, assistant to the president of the University, is one of three "junior educators" in the United States who have been chosen to make a study of educational administration under a grant-in-aid from the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

The Board of Regents has granted Dr. Wardell leave of absence, to be taken probably next Fall, so that he can spend from two to four months on the educational survey. He will visit a number of universities and the information obtained is expected to be of considerable value to the University of Oklahoma as well as to the field of higher education generally.

Twelve or more faculty members were on the Dallas, Texas, program of the Southwestern Social Science Association. Dr. J. J. Rhyne, Dr. Gilbert Harold, Professor George A. Hoke, Dr. Leonard Logan, Dr. John H. Leek, Dr. Cortez A. M. Ewing, Dr. Royden J. Dangerfield, Professor Clyde J. Bollinger, Dr. Floyd L. Vaughan, Professor E. C. Petty, Dr. C. C. Rister, Dr. Ronald B. Shuman, and Allen Beldon, instructor in geography were on the program.

Dr. Aute Richards, head of the zoology department, who has been in St. Anthony's Hospital, Oklahoma City, for an operation is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. A. R. Ramey fractured her arm recently; she is recovering.

Friday night, April 21 was the date of a Faculty Club formal dance. Committee: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mahaffay, Mr. and Mrs. John Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Field.

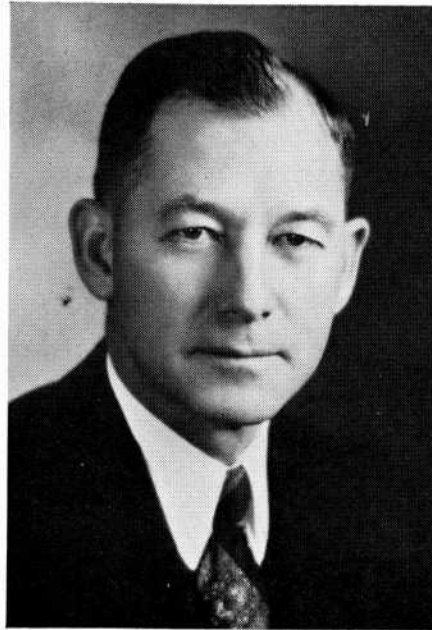

The committee for the Thursday afternoon tea at the Faculty Clubhouse April 13 was composed of Mrs. Ben Huey, chairman; Mrs. J. W. Stovall, Mrs. Gilbert Harold, Mrs. C. L. Farrar, Mrs. Joseph Taylor, Miss Wilda Griffin, Mrs. S. R. Hadsell.

Mrs. Jerome Dowd and Miss Deborah Haines entertained a group of friends in honor of Mrs. Leon Phillips, '12, a member of their class, Sunday, April 16.

Charles Elson, assistant professor of drama, reviewed The Golden Boy, a novel by Clifford Odet, April 13 in the browsing room of the University Library.

Dr. Alice Sowers, director of family life education for the Extension Division, has been chosen to serve on President Roosevelt's Conference on Education of Youth in a Democracy.

Dr. A. B. Adams, dean of the College of Business Administration, went to Berkeley, California, last month to deliver an address before a convention of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.

Dr. M. L. Wardell, '19

Los Dos Americas held a banquet April 13 on the eve of Pan American Day. Sponsor was Dr. Stephen Scatori. Speakers were Victor Harlow, '31ma, Oklahoma City publisher, and Luis Abreu Perez, the Mexican consul at Oklahoma City.

New president of the University chapter of Sigma Xi, national research fraternity, is Dr. George A. Van Lear, associate professor of physics. Other new chapter officers are Dr. J. C. Colbert, assistant professor of chemistry, elected vice president, and Dr. Milton Hopkins, assistant professor of botany, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Dr. Ronald B. Shuman, assistant professor of business management, has received a grant-in-aid from the Social Science Research Council, New York, for field research in the petroleum industry. Dr. Shuman plans to do field work in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Arkansas this Summer.

Dr. Charles M. Perry, head of the department of philosophy, has been appointed chairman of a committee of the Southwestern Philosophical Congress to direct a survey of philosophy in schools of the southwest.

Officers of the faculty club for the next year were introduced at a formal dinner Friday night, April 14, when Dr. John O. Moseley, '16ma, president of Central State Teachers College, Edmond was a guest speaker. The new club officers are Arnold W. Johnson, president; Clyde L. Farrar, vice president; C. F. Daily, secretary; Ivin G. Richardson, treasurer, and Dr. J. Teague Self, house chairman.

Dr. M. L. Wardell, '19, assistant to the president of the University, was re-elected national historian of Phi Eta Sigma, honorary freshman scholastic fraternity, at the national convention held last month at Bloomington, Indiana.

Miss Helen Gregory's dance recital in March, with members of Orchesis, drew a large audience. The program was varied. A new feature this year was a somewhat dramatic dance interpretation of Vachel Lindsay's Congo. Other groupings gave pleasing tableaux, such as "Sons of the Soil," "Pleasing Pleasantries," and "Incident" in which a peasant girl with a mop showed her dislike for work.

J. F. Findlay, dean of men, was re-elected executive secretary and member of the executive board of the National Independent Student Association April 1 at Lawrence, Kansas.

After serving in the position for three years, Dr. J. J. Rhyne, director of the School of Social Work, has resigned as editor of the Southwestern Social Science Quarterly. His successor is C. M. Rosenquist at the University of Texas. Two University of Oklahoma members have been added to the editorial staff of the quarterly. Allen Belden, assistant professor of geography, was appointed associate editor of the geographical section and W. K. Newton, head of the department of accounting, was named associate editor of the business administration section of the publication.

Dr. J. Rud Nielsen, professor of theoretical physics, is author of an article on Hans Christian Oersted, discoverer of electromagnetism, which appeared in the February issue of the American Physics Teacher.

The following members of the faculty have been presidents of the Oklahoma chapter of Phi Beta Kappa:

Julien C. Monnet, J. H. Felgar, Roy Gittinger, S. R. Hadsell, H. H. Herbert, Guy Y. Williams, V. E. Monnett, E. D. Meacham, L. N. Morgan, Lloyd Swearingen, M. L. Wardell, E. E. Dale, S. W. Reaves, J. L. Rader, Joe Brandt, Kenneth Kaufman and Fayette Copeland.