June 4 Is Reunion Day

RESERVATIONS were rolling in last month for the five class reunions to be held Sunday afternoon and evening, June 4, in the Union Building on the University campus.

First response to the new plan of having five-year reunions (a reunion for each class out of school five years or a multiple of five years, for a quarter-century back) indicated a record attendance of visiting alumni on the Commencement weekend.

The reunion classes are '14, '19, '24, '29, and '34.

The special events for alumni include a general informal reception for all visiting alumni at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 4, in the Main Lounge and other public rooms of the Union Building; a radio broadcast program at 3:30 p.m. over the Oklahoma network, and five class reunion dinners at 6:30 p.m. in various dining rooms of the Union.

Reservations for the Reunion dinner cost $1.00 per person and must be made by June 1. There is nothing else to pay. Relatives and friends of the reunion class members are welcome to attend along with the alumni at the same price.

Joseph Bentonelli, '20, popular tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company and concert stage, has tentatively accepted an invitation to sing a group of selections for the visiting alumni. He has promised to be present unless concert tour schedules make it impossible.

The Sunday afternoon program for alumni will include special recognition for the four living charter members of the alumni association—the men who organized the association forty years ago this Spring.

The living charter members are C. Ross Hume, Anadarko, and Roy P. Stoops, Oakland, California, both of the Class of '98; and J. L. Hefley, Norman, and Lawrence W. Cole, Boulder, Colorado, of the Class of '99. The fifth charter member, Roscoe S. Helvie, is now deceased.

The half-hour radio broadcast will be a new feature of the reunions, and will make it possible for many reunion class members who are unable to attend in person, to listen in for part of the program.

Other events of Sunday, June 4, and Monday, June 5 will interest alumni. The baccalaureate service for the graduating class will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday in the Fieldhouse.

John Rogers, of Tulsa, University law graduate in the Class of '14 and therefore a member of the Silver Anniversary Reunion Class, will be the commencement speaker Monday, June 5.
