HONOLULU, T. H.

Lieut. Perry B. Hackett, chairman.

THAT Southwest again! Back home and it looks like the whole southwestern tier of counties had assembled that January evening for the 7 o'clock alumni banquet in the New Orient Hotel at Altus. Just fifteen minutes late getting to the banquet table, but at that we have enjoyed seeing a lot of old friends in the lobby. BLAIR THORPE '21—the neighbors must have been good to him as he has gained considerably in weight in these twenty-five years—or is it thirty some odd since we were in grade school together in the "gyp country" of Eldorado? A brief chat with DUTCH CULLEN. Dutch of course never attended the University of Oklahoma, but he is ready to stake the Coca Cola Bottling Company and all he has in the interests of the University. Then the old banker, OTIS ROWE, '18ex, recently married, after proving that the bank at Blair, Oklahoma, is the only financial institution of the southwest. At any rate, he was a good roommate at the University of Oklahoma before he was a good banker in the interests of Jackson County.

So on into the banquet room where some 170 loyal Sooners from some ten counties of the southwest are ready for the big evening. The University gang had beaten me to the draw. They were already assembled at the head table ready for the fireworks when I finally made it from the lobby floor. In this assembly was HERBERT H. SCOTT, '26, '26ma, J. F. MALONE, '36ex, C. C. BEARD, '29m. ed, PETE SMITH, '38ex, ROSCOE CATE, '26, DOC ERSKINE and TOM STIDHAM. And were they all consuming this "southwestern Oklahoma beef"!

To my left as I am seated I hear the command of the Quarterback, HARRINGTON WIMBERLY, '24, yelling for the signal calling to start. The first signal caller was none other than WALTER W. ISLE, '15. Walt, as you know, is president of the Southwestern Teachers College at Weatherford. He rang the gong as an after dinner speaker, as usual, and made his most gracious bows in presenting the musical numbers at the banquet that evening, a student trio from the college.

The silent signal caller is the quiet but very efficient chairman of the Jackson County Advisory Council, PAUL F. PEARSON, '23ex. I'll bet that bird failed to get one bite to eat all evening. He was bouncing around like the proverbial cork on rough waters. ROY H. DAVIS, '23, '34m.ed, of the senior high school was strutting his stuff with special introductions; while DR. JAMES E. ENSEY, '28med, another member of the Advisory Council, was giving his most gracious bows in acknowledging new friends and greeting old ones. DR. JOHN REID (well, he used to be John up at Blair and in those days chased around the race track carrying the southwestern colors) is now chasing over southwestern Oklahoma performing outstanding surgical work.

Over in the corner is "Old Faithful" MILES TOLBERT, '23law, the attorney of Hobart and Kiowa County, who has with him as special guests of the evening DR. and MRS. J. WATKINS, PLACE MONTGOMERY, '25law, STUB
